

A VAST COMBINATION OF LOCAL POTTERIES

Laughlin China Company and the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Plants Are Included.

FOUR OTHER FACTORIES ARE ALSO MENTIONED

And It Is Predicted That At Least a Dozen More Will Enter the New Company.

CHARTERED IN NEW JERSEY WITH A NOMINAL CAPITAL

"A combination of six large pottery companies, including the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, the largest in the world, and the Homer Laughlin China company, perhaps the most famous in the west, has just been effected through the efforts of Louis I. Aarons, the master, who is president of the latter company, and has offices in the Second National bank building, Pittsburg," says the Dispatch. "The aggregate value of the plants, at a very conservative estimate, is $5,000,000, and it is predicted that before long 12 more potteries will be in the combine."

"The other charter members of the combine are the Harker Pottery company, the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, the Taylor, Lee & Smith company and the Edwin M. Knowles China company. The latter two have their plants at Chester, W. Va., just across the river from East Liverpool, where the other four companies are located. Together they employ about 7,000 persons."

"The consolidation has been in process of formation for six months or more. The papers were finally exchanged yesterday after the receipt of the charter from Trenton, N. J., on Friday afternoon. The capitalization is fixed at the nominal figure of $250,000."

"The title of the new corporation was not announced last night, but the name of the trust which died a burning two years ago, the American Pottery company, will probably be adopted. The indications are that Col. John N. Taylor, president of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, will be president, and that Mr. Aarons, who is president of the Homer Laughlin China company, will be first vice president."

"The companies included manufacture only white ware in the dinner and toilet lines and the finer grades, and the new company as it stands today practically controls that business."

"The new company is to be the nucleus for a large combination, to include all the principal plants in the west. The total value of those in the district about East Liverpool is about $15,000,000, while $3,000,000 would represent the money invested in the others west of the Alleghenies. There is little probability of the great interests in the eastern district, about Trenton, N. J., being included in the new deal."

"The present is the third attempt that has been made to combine the earthenware plants of the country. The first was in 1898, when John R. Dos Passos, of New York, an agent of J. Pierpont Morgan, secured options on every plant of any importance in the country except two. The transfers were made January 1, 1899, and the potters actually ran under the name of the new combination for nearly two months. The greed of the promoting syndicate, however, killed the deal. The underwriters in New York insisted in the increasing of the capitalization to $28,000,000 and retaining double the amount of stock as commission that had first been proposed. The potters withdrew, losing thousands of dollars in the venture."

The story published in Pittsburg this morning is one that has been known to many people in this city since the last of April. However, at no time was the matter in shape to be given to the public until the last few days when one of the largest manufacturers interested in the deal made the statement to a News Review reporter that matters were being closed and a fortnight would see the formation of the new combination. It has also been stated that had it not been for the serious illness of Marcus Aarons, of the Laughlin company, the deal would have been consummated several weeks ago, but under the circumstances definite action was deferred for some time. Conferences have been held in this city and also in Pittsburg concerning the matter, but not until the last few weeks was it in such shape that the deal was considered likely to be completed.

A telegram from S. K. Dickson, secretary of state, at Trenton, N. J., to the News Review yesterday afternoon stated no charter for the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles or the Laughlin company was on file.

It is stated upon authority that is considered most reliable that the new combination will be operated under a name that will represent the name of

ACTION TAKEN

IN THE VITAL MATTER OF PROVIDING NEW SEWERS.

The Commission Met Today and Made Recommendations to Council.

The meeting of the sewer commission scheduled for last evening did not materialize, but was held today.

Action on a report submitted by Health Officer Burgess was to have been taken by the commissioner and it was considered urgent that something be done in the matter. At the meeting of the board of health last week Mr. Burgess was notified to present the property owners along certain designated thoroughfares with a petition for their signatures, which would signify their wish for sewers. In pursuance of this order Mr. Burgess visited the owners along Thompson avenue, Ravine street and Vine street and reports that every owner signed the petition. The petitions were acted upon by the commission today and sewers recommended.

Before council can take any action in the matter by law it is required that the sewer commission recommend that the work be done.

SISTER FOLLOWED HIM

Interceded With the Mayor and Secured Release of an Arrested Brother.

There was quite a scene on Sixth street early last evening when George Starhill was placed under arrest by Officer McDermott for being drunk and using profane language. He resisted the officer and made the air blue with profane oaths, but was yanked to central station notwithstanding.

A sister of the man followed him to jail and plead with the mayor for her brother's release, promising to take him home and keep him there until sober. His honor did as requested.

Declined the Appointment.

George W. McCook, Steubenville, has declined the appointment as member of the commission to assist in the celebration of the Ohio centennial at Chillicothe, tendered him by Governor Nash, and Robert W. Manley, of Chillicothe, a descendant of one of the early governors of Ohio, has been appointed in his stead. The position carries with it no salary.

Lost His Way.

A young man, aged about 23 years, performed the remarkable feat of losing his way on the train yesterday, and did not get his bearings until a conductor on the C. & P. kindly laid him over in this city. The depot officials used their good offices and sent the traveler back to Wellsville, where he was able to catch the right train and resume his journey westward.

KING EDWARD AND QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

Probably no two persons the world has ever known have been so frequently "pictured" as King Edward and Queen Alexandra, over whose impending coronation all England, and indeed almost the whole world, is just now agog. The accompanying illustrations are from their latest photographs.

BRUTALLY BEATEN BY HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Emma Cassidy Has the Man Locked Up in the City Jail.

VIOLENT BLOWS STRUCK

And She Feared For Her Life—The Man Will Be Taken to Lisbon and Required to Give Bond—Divorce Proceedings Probable.

In a pitiable condition, her face showing quite perceptibly the marks of numerous blows and her body badly bruised from her head to her feet, Mrs. Emma Cassidy, of Bank street, appeared in Squire McLane's court yesterday and asked that her husband, Thomas F. Cassidy, be arrested and dealt with by the law. She feared for her life.

The squire gave Constable Powell orders to arrest the man. He was later arraigned and the testimony offered permitted the justice to have him placed in the city jail with orders that he be taken to Lisbon tomorrow to answer to probate court.

It is said that Cassidy is a periodical drinker and that when he gets on a spree takes delight in abusing his wife. It is stated, he went home drunk yesterday and gave his wife a beating too horrible to describe. Her screams, it is said were heard for a block away.

Mrs. Cassidy stated that she did not want him tried for assault and battery but would rather that he be placed under a peace bond, which she knows he will break, and then he will be sent to the workhouse. While he is incarcerated there she announces that she will begin proceedings for divorce.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Daughters of Liberty is being held in the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall over the postoffice. About 70 delegates from different parts of the state have arrived in the city, the great majority of them coming yesterday, and it is predicted that the meeting will be one of the most successful ever held.

At the reception last evening fully 150 people were present and they all in one accord pronounced the entertainment very fine and highly enjoyable. The hall was prettily decorated with the national emblem, giving the spacious room an air most appropriate to the occasion.

John W. Sellers as master of ceremonies called the meeting to order and the following pleasing program was carried out: Singing of "America" by the audience; address of welcome, Florence M. Sellers, Jr., ex-state councillor; response, Adeline P. Lockwood, state councillor, of Bellaire; recitation, Leroy Orr; vocal solo, Miss Alice Devon; recitation, Miss Heakin; vocal solo, Miss Eleanor Orr; recitation, Prof. S. M. Omohundro; vocal solo, Mrs. Lizzie

STILL OTHERS LIKELY TO DIE

Wreck at Mingo Junction More Serious in Its Results Than First Reported.

AMONG THE BADLY HURT

Are Men Who Make Their Homes in Wellsville—The Condition of Two Is Considered Most Precarious.

The wreck at Mingo Junction yesterday morning which resulted in the almost instant death of two brakemen and the maiming of almost a dozen other railroad men is even worse than the early account published in this paper. One or two more victims of the accident stand a poor show of recovery.

William Hanniford, conductor on train No. 85, will probably die. He is at the Gill hospital in Steubenville.

In the account of the wreck given yesterday it was stated that Hanniford was a resident of Bellaire. He formerly lived there but of late has been a resident of Cleveland. For a few weeks he has been running between Cleveland and Wellsville as conductor. When here roomed on Commerce street. Mrs. Hanniford was here a short time three weeks ago and returned to Cleveland. Hanniford was transferred again to the river division Saturday evening and was on his first run to Bellaire. He intended to move his home to Wellsville where he is so well known.

Mrs. Hanniford arrived in the city from Cleveland on her way to the bedside of her husband yesterday. He was crushed internally and is conscious only a few minutes at a time. The doctors do not expect his recovery.

Elmer Cooper, engineer of the fated pony No. 404, was carried from the train to his home on Commerce street in Wellsville. A foot and arm are mashed. Cooper is badly hurt, injured internally and looks like a corpse.

Engineer Ed Duty, of Wellsville, who was acting as pilot on train 85, is at the Gill hospital and very feeble. His condition does not warrant his removal home. He was at first reported killed, then only to have had a hand broken, but is hurt internally and is in a critical state.

Portions of wrecked engines, the mogul No. 87 and the pony No. 404, have been brought to the Wellsville shops.

Two brakemen who were killed were were momentarily in the utmost agony, frightfully scalded and burned, but their injuries were so terrible and vital that fortunately death speedily ended their sufferings.

An official investigation cannot be properly made of the wreck until the injured survivors are able to talk.

The blame seems to rest with the pony crew, but they were only partially responsible. Train No. 87, supposed to run from Conway, started from Wellsville and the pony crew presumed that it had been annulled, as it was not supposed to start from Wellsville. Crews are supposed to "make time," and are "called down" if they do not come up to the standard. With so many trains running on the C. & P. desperate chances are frequently run by conductors and engineers who wish to make a good record.

No word has been received from several who have been asked to serve.

The manufacturers have prepared their answer to the communication that was received from the Brotherhood, and this will be the first matter that will be presented to the operatives at the start of the conferences, which will be held in the rooms of the Potters' club tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

KILLED ON RAILROAD

He Was Walking the Track and His Widow Demands $10,000.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Susan A. Chestnut, administratrix of the estate of William Chestnut, of Franklin Square, has entered suit against the Erie railroad company for $10,000 damages. On the evening of June 15, 1901, Mr. Chestnut was walking along the railroad track near Franklin Square and was hit by a train and killed.

Mrs. Chestnut claims in her petition that residents of Franklin Square were in the habit of walking on the track between Franklin Square and Leontia; that the engineer in charge of the train that killed Mr. Chestnut did not slow down when he saw him on the track, and that he did not exercise due care, as he knew Mr. Chestnut was deaf.

A FARM HAND'S BILL

It Amounts to $3,200 for Work and Rent of Land.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Charles Matthews, of Franklin township, has entered suit against C. B. Connell, as administrator of the estate of Mary J. Matthews, deceased, for $3,200.

The plaintiff's claim is for work in managing the farm of the deceased and for the use and occupation by her for five years of plaintiff's farm in Hanover township.

WALKED OUT OF THE JAIL

HE IS A MUCH WANTED MAN

William Jones, alias Thomas Connolly, the pickpocket, who was arrested last week at Chester for pocket picking and taken to New Cumberland, colly effected his escape from the jail this morning at 8 o'clock, walking out while Guards Basil West and Stanton Milby were eating breakfast, they having left the prisoner but a moment before.

Connolly performed the trick very smoothly, the door of the jail having been left unlocked, and the guards being in close proximity. They failed to observe Connolly, and he made his exit good.

The discovery of his absence was made shortly afterward and a thorough search was at once instituted, but his whereabouts have not as yet been discovered, or any possible clue leading to them.

Connolly has been identified by Grant S. Ward, Pennsylvania company inspector of police, as William Jones, for whom the authorities have been looking for the past seven years. Ward visited the New Cumberland jail, and accosted Jones with "Hello Bill." Jones said he did not know him. Ward asked him to hold up his right hand. He complied, showing that there was a scar on it, and also his left hand, there being a scar on his thumb. He had other marks on his hands and body by which he was easily identified.

The prisoner received a special delivery letter from Rochester, Pa., and it was at once intercepted by Sheriff Allison, who still has possession of it.

Jones robbed John Maier, of Homestead, Pa., of a pocketbook at Chester. It contained a railway ticket and 11 cents, together with some papers. He failed to secure a large roll of bills which Maier had secreted in another pocket. It is thought he is gone for good.

B. Carlisle.

His father died in January, 1900, and the plaintiff claims that he has paid off the note and asks that the heirs give him a deed for the property.

EAST END

LIGHT WON'T SHINE

Councilmanic Committee Sees No Necessity for One That Was Requested.

At a recent meeting of council Dr. Marshall, of the East End, asked that a small light be placed at the corner of Erie street and Dewey avenue. The matter was referred to the light committee, and last evening the members of the committee went to the East End and looked at the location where the light was requested. It is predicted that no light will be placed there for several months. There is not a house in the immediate vicinity and at present only the foundation of the parsonage of the Erie street M. E. church is at the corner.

It will be months before the parsonage is completed, and much longer before the church is ready for occupancy. When there is sufficient cause for a light to be placed in that locality the committee of council will act favorably on the matter, but not before. So said a member of the committee last evening after he had visited the East End.

STABLE LOCK BROKEN

And a Horse Stolen—Property of Mrs. Ida Clark, East End.

Horse thieves have again invaded the East End and last evening a valuable working horse was stolen from a stable in an alley south of St. George street. It was owned by Mrs. Ida Clark, who keeps a grocery on Mulberry street, and was valued at $100. This morning there was no clue to the thieves, although officers were working on the case, and it was expected that by evening a clue would be obtained.

The horse was placed in its stable as usual in the evening and the door securely locked, but in gaining an entrance to the building the thieves broke the lock. Those living in the vicinity heard no particular noise during the night.

It is believed the theft was committed by the same persons who stole Larkins & Ferguson's horse from the Waggle farm recently.

An Enjoyable Social.

The social given last evening at the residence of Rev. N. M. Crowe, on Pennsylvania avenue, was one of the most pleasant events of the season. It was intended that the pastor should entertain the congregation, but more than this occurred, for the members of the church brought refreshments with them, including 10 gallons of ice cream. It was proposed to make merry on the lawn surrounding the house, but the weather was too chilly for this and a retreat was made to the par-

MISSING GIRL

Little credence is given the following which appeared in a Wheeling paper yesterday. At police headquarters nothing is known of the alleged missing girl.

"A pretty 15-year-old girl is missing from East Liverpool, and it is alleged she has been led astray by a Wheeling traveling man. She disappeared from her home last Thursday. She went to Warrenton to participate in a concert, being somewhat of an elocutionist, but did not return home, and her parents became alarmed and started an investigation. She was traced to Warrenton, where she was in the company of a Wheeling traveling man in the employ of a wholesale grocery house. Sunday two men arrived at Martin's Ferry in search of the girl. Two valises recognized as hers were discovered, one at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh station, and the other at the Bellevue hotel. The men refused to divulge the girl's name, or that of the traveling man in whose company she is alleged to have been."

MAN WITH A KNIFE

Attempt to Use It and Got Badly Punished as a Result.

Passengers to this city on the late Pittsburgh train Saturday evening witnessed a fight that came near being attended by serious results. A passenger sat down on the arm of a seat which was occupied by an Italian, who with other of his countrymen were coming to this city. The Italian requested the man to get up, but no attention was paid. Finally the men back of the Italian saw several queer moves by the foreigner, and found that he had a large knife which he was about to run into the hip of the man on the arm of his seat.

That man punished the Italian unmercifully. The American got a bad cut during the fight.

An East Liverpool Girl Was Sent After Being Released to See Her Father.

Attila, a young daughter of Henry Lowry, was taken before Judge Boone at Lisbon, about two years ago, charged with theft. She was taken to Fairmount Home, where she remained until about a month ago, when she returned to her home by special permission to see her father who, it was claimed, was lying at the point of death. He did not die, but announced his intention to keep the child with him if possible.

Judge Boone was notified of this intention through Supt. Southworth who promptly instructed Sheriff Leonard to go to East Liverpool and secure the child and return it to the Home.

GORED BY A BULL

ENRAGED ANIMAL FIERCELY ATTACKS A YOUNG MAN.

Elmer Haynes Knocked Down and Severely Injured near Congo.

Elmer Haynes, aged 24, was gored by a bull about two miles from Congo yesterday afternoon. He works for Frank Swearingen. The animal has a vicious disposition and is let into the field only at intervals. Many people were traversing the country Sunday afternoon and Mr. Swearingen told Haynes to put the bull in the stable.

When Haynes approached the beast it charged on him. The man broke a rotten club over the bull's head but was knocked down and being savagely attacked when George Farrell ran to his rescue. Haynes was severely bruised and wounded about the chest. His condition is not serious.

Music—Evert Rose, Edward Hatton, George Hale.

Sports—Tony Bertell, John Boulton, Edward L. Hatton.

Another meeting of the committee will be held next Friday evening when additional plans for the outing will be discussed. It is the purpose of the committee to have a larger celebration this year than ever before.

Chronic Diarrhoea.

This disease is generally regarded as incurable, mainly for the reason that the remedies usually employed are ineffectual. That it can be cured, however, has been fully proven in many cases. The following tells of one of them: Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburgh, Ga., says: "I had been suffering from chronic diarrhoea for seven years. Last year I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it has entirely cured me. I had spent lots of money for doctors' medicine in the run of of the seven years. If it had not been for this remedy I would have been dead now, and I feel that I can never say too much in its favor or recommend it too highly." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

A HARD STRUGGLE

Many an East Liverpool Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is one of struggle.

No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. East Liverpool people endorse this claim.

Mr. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Bradshaw avenue, says: "During three years I had attacks of dull, steady aching in the back. When stooping or sitting for some time it would change to a quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long, and I often had headaches, dizziness, and in the mornings great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at the W. & W. pharmacy, to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I had ever tried."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sold by W. & W. pharmacy.

Commenting on the fact that statistics of university graduating classes
show probably 90 per cent to be Republicans in politics, the New York Tribune asks: "What is to be the future of the Democratic party? A fortuitous swarm of jarring atoms, with
few educated leaders who know things
and can look ahead, and with few educated followers that can talk well, or write well, or have the knack of getting
together in political battles? Aimless,
confused and distracted, they are asking in forlorn accents 'where they are
at' and are stumbling into the ditch of
defeat even before the lines of battle
are fairly set against each other." Young men who propose to take a part in politics can see no future in a party
that is not only looking backward, but
going backward.

Now a medical man arises to state
that salt will cure pneumonia. A few years ago some of his brethren were announcing that it would raise the dead, but as no graveyards have been depopulated through its agency, the world is still skeptical, and likely to receive the announcement of the new discovery with many grains of allowance.

It is asserted that nearly 18,000
Americans found homes in the Dominion of Canada last year, not counting Klondike gold seekers and those whose migration was forced by embezzlement charges. At this rate of progress, annexation sentiment ought
to increase at a rapid rate.

The doctors report that the trouble
with Hobson is "compound hypermet-
ropic astigmatism, retinal hyperemia
and trachoma." This, compounded
with his habit of promiscuous oscula-tion, certainly makes his condition
grave.

In Denmark the people continue to
be excited over the proposition to sell
the Danish West Indies to the United States. If they would warrant the islands volcano-proof, Uncle Sam might
evince more interest.

If Bryan can get that fusion nomination for governor of Nebraska he had better clinch it. It begins to look as if it were the only political honor likely
to be offered to him.

The new King of Saxony is 70 years
old. There seems to be one place left

where the boys aren't getting all the good jobs.

A man was killed in Tennessee the other day for traducing the army in the Philippines. The "aunties"
should take warning.

Gov. Odell, of New York, predicts
that his state will again go Republican next fall. He is undoubtedly a true prophet.

The 7-year locusts, whose visit was predicted, have failed to arrive. Nobody has yet expressed any regret.

A June snowstorm, like many other things that are marvelous, is an Ohio
product.

There won't be any Democratic harmony if William J. Bryan can prevent it.

Grover Cleveland, in being abused by Bryan, is again in distinguished company.

England's week of joy bids fair to be converted into one of sorrow.

Lisbon thirst may still be gratified.

M. J. Timlin.

News of the death of M. J. Timlin,
who was seriously injured in Athens
county last Saturday, the facts of which were given in this paper last evening, was received in the city late yesterday afternoon. While Mr. Tim-
lin's injuries were considered serious,
it was the belief of his many friends
in and about this city that he would ultimately recover. Sunday, however,
tated near the ankle, and the injuries
to his back were so great that his recovery was at last found to be impossible.

Mr. Timlin is well known in this city. Besides being president of the Belmont Oil and Gas Co., of this city,
he was interested with other East
Liverpool business men in various enterprises. His last visit to this city
was about two weeks ago, when he was
the guest of Charles A. Smith. Mr.
Timlin resided with his wife and three children, at Mountsville, and was about 43 years old. Several years ago
he was executor of a large estate near Smith's Ferry. He had been identified with the oil and gas business all
his life.

Robert Alexander.

Robert Alexander, aged about 35, of Wellsville, died in Texas last night,
from consumption. He left last autumn on account of failing health, hoping to receive benefit from the arid atmosphere of the southwest. A telegram received this morning announced his death. Mr. Alexander lost a leg by being run over by the cars when a child,
but when he grew up became a telegraph operator and was in the employ of the C. & P. for several years. He was a son of Mrs. Hugh Alexander, of Fourteenth street, and a brother of
John Alexander; Mrs. O. C. Wells,
Pittsburg; Mrs. W. D. Moore and Mrs.
Mary Eckfeld, Wellsville. Owing to his amiable disposition he had many friends, especially among the railroad
men. The remains will be brought to Wellsville for burial.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE POTTERIES

Special Correspondence.

New Castle, Pa., June 24.—The following officers have been elected by local union No. 54, of this city: President, S. Dobbs; vice president, C.
Swan; recording secretary, W. Potter;
financial secretary, B. Conwell; statistician, R. A. Wood; inspector, M. Lan-
than; inside guard, S. Brooks; outside guard, W. Williamson; trustees, 12
months, R. A. Wood, six months, S.
Dobbs.

Pep Glenn is a new arrival at the
sanitary pottery.

The sanitary works have just completed the new sagger kiln.

Local union No. 54 has changed its meeting night from Wednesday night
to Friday.

A social given for the benefit of John Munro, was largely attended, and
a neat sum will be given him.

The sanitary shop will get one day's loaf for the Fourth of July. A large number of the Shenango boys will spend the Fourth camping.

Rusby and Bradley are two new arrivals at the Shenango.

There is some talk of the New Castle China pottery loading but one day for the Fourth.

Quite a number of buyers have arrived in the city during the past few days, and the report is current that some extensive business is being placed.
Among those that have registered at the Thompson house are Hugh Nevin, of Rochester, N. Y., and his brother, George S. Nevin, of San Francisco. These gentlemen are connected with large crockery stores in their respective towns, and will spend several days in the city. Two buyers
from Corsicana, Tex., W. M. and Clifford Taltum, are also in the city. H. J.
Blakeny, also of Texas, is placing
some large business with several local firms.

P. P. Wilbur, a Zanesville potter,
is trying to organize a company to build a pottery at Dresden, O. His proposition is for the citizens to organize a company with a capital stock
of $20,000 and employ him at a salary
of $100 per month and manufacture
the jug on a royalty, or buy the patent at $5,000. Mr. Wilbur and a brother operated a small plant at Sallio
about two years ago, but a fire destroyed their plant and crippled them financially. Since then Wilbur has been working in other potteries.

From the information that was received from a number of manufacturers today, many of the potteries will suspend operations next Saturday for a two weeks' term, while others will not stop until Thursday evening, July
3. On this date the Smith-McNicol
is expected to stop for a short vacation. The plants operated by the Laughlin company will close Saturday
for two weeks. Other plants will be stopped as conditions require, but it is thought the rest will not last more
than two weeks in any case.

Everything is in readiness to commence work at the plant of the East
Liverpool Sagger company on Second street. There is one thing that is delaying the start, and that is the
non-arrival of a large pulley that is to be placed on the shaft that operates
the pans and the pug mills. It is thought that operations will be started
within a week, though it was expected
to start the plant this week.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 at a meeting last evening in Knights of Columbus hall, elected officers for the new term as follows: President,
Frederick Fitzgerald; vice president,
Harry VanFossen; recording secretary, Lawrence White; financial secretary, Harry Smith; treasurer, T. O.
Terrence; one per cent secretary,
Charles Pollock.

A party of operatives employed at the Union are planning a trip to the northern part of the state, where they will remain camp for two weeks, or during the shut down. Among those who will make the trip are Elijah
Eardley, William Messer, Robert
Steeley, John DeBee, Basil Rowe, El-
mer and Walter Smith, Edward Cassidy, Ed Provo and William Gilchrist.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Globe
were unable to work yesterday. Last week the crown of a kiln fell in just
as it was being fired, but luckily no
ware was damaged, and no person was injured. The necessary repairs are now being made, and the kilnmen will

start to work within a short time.

Kilndrawers' local failed to elect
officers at a meeting held last Saturday night, and will elect next Saturday. A committee was appointed at
the last session to audit the books,
and make a report at the next meeting. The new officers will take their seat the first meeting night in July.

The work of repainting the exterior
of the Sevres pottery on Second street
has about been completed. The improvement adds much to the appearance of the plant, as nothing of the kind had been done to the outer walls
of the building for several years.

Dippers' local No. 16, and printers'
and transferers' local No. 32, met in their respective halls last evening but nothing out of the ordinary business
was transacted.

Many improvements are being made
at the old Lacy pottery at Trenton.
New boilers are about to be installed,
and it is said that an additional kiln
is also to be built.

William Maley, who has been working a plate figger at the Diamond for many months, has resigned, and is now located at Canonsburg, Pa.

James Stewart, a glost kilnman at
the Union, who has been very ill for the past 14 weeks, has returned to his
bench, starting work yesterday.

The N. U. Walker sewer pipe works
at Walker, belonging to the combine,
are being extensively repaired, and
new machinery is being placed.

The American China company, of Toronto, will shut down in a few days
until after the Fourth, to allow employes an outing and visit.

Newt, Logan, of East Liverpool, as
accepted a position in the decorating
department at the American China
company plant, Toronto.

John Denning, who has been working as a glost kilnman at the Union
for several months, has resigned his position.

The Patterson foundry has received
a large order for work from a new
pottery to be located at Logan, O.

An electric clay drilling machine
will be put in the clay mine at the Vulcan brick works, Wellsville.

A new toilet set is about to be placed on the market by the Goodwin
Pottery company.

George Worcester, a dipper at the Klondike, is laid up with a bad felon
on his thumb.

The Calumet sewer pipe works, El-
liottsville, are building four large new kilns.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Smith-
Phillips plant did not work yesterday.

The Wellsville China company will close down Friday for two weeks.

An Enjoyable Picnic.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church held its annual picnic
yesterday at Rock Springs park. Not a very large crowd was present owing to the weather. The old pavilion was
the scene of much merriment when the entire company set down to a table
laden with all kinds of delicacies. Notwithstanding the coolness of the weather, those present report an unusually fine time.

GRAVE CRIME CHARGED

JACOB FICKES GOES TO THE COUNTY JAIL AT LISBON.

Mrs. William Peddler, of Yellow Creek, Accuses Him of Attacking Her at Night.

Jacob Fickes yesterday was bound over to court in the sum of $500 on a grave charge before Justice Daniel S. McIntosh, of Yellow Creek. A preliminary hearing was given him on complaint of Mrs. Kate Peddler, wife of William Peddler. She is a woman of high standing in the neighborhood, and charges Fickes with having entered her room shortly after midnight Friday morning and attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Peddler was visiting at the residence of John Forbes, near the Oak Ridge church. It is alleged that Fickes forced open a screen door and got into the house. When Mrs. Peddler awoke, Fickes was in her room and the plucky woman struggled with him, succeeding in putting him out of the house. The other members of the household were aroused and a complaint was sworn out before Justice McIntosh.

Fickes was arrested by Constable John Dorman. The prisoner was unable to furnish bond and has been taken to the county jail at Lisbon. He is said to be partially lacking mentally. If Mrs. Peddler's story is true—and there is no reason for doubting her integrity—the assault was vicious, and swift punishment will doubtless be meted out to her assailant.

A STORE ROBBED

Chewing Gum, Tobacco and Cigars Taken From Harry Hale's Place.

At the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets last night some marauder helped himself to $25 worth of cigars, tobacco and chewing gum. Harry Hale's place of business was entered by the large transom over the broad front door.

The removal of a quart of ice cream from the refrigerator showed that the man of easy ways tranquil in his method, was epicurean in taste and took his time. All the cash had been removed from the place so that no money was obtained. A regular night patrolman is assigned to that district, but the entry of the premises was not discovered until the proprietor opened his store in the morning.

A group of boys were found during the forenoon on the hillside with a lot of chewing gum but Hale could not assert positively that it was his. The boys were taken to the county jail, and pumped, but refused to give any information. They were released.

During the night it was reported by a passer-by that some one was inside the store room of J. H. Aten and with lanterns and pistols the night police made a detour of the premises from cellar to garret but found it was a false alarm.

Took His Overcoat Along.

Prof. J. L. McDonald, superintendent of the Wellsville schools, went to Put-in-Bay yesterday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio State Teachers' association. When the committee decided on the place for holding the session they thought that the last of June would be very hot and that a cool spot on the bay should be selected. Prof. McDonald had his overcoat with him.

Board of Education Meeting.

At a meeting of the board of education last evening the usual bills were ordered paid and the building committee was instructed to obtain estimates on the repair on the heating apparatus of the Central school building which is in bad shape and will cost considerable money. Owing to the absence of Supt.

VENDERS OF RIKK WERE ARRESTED

E. S. GOOD AND ROBERT BURLOCK ARE THE ACCUSED.

The Hancock Grand Jury Has Indicted Them for Selling Intoxicants.

E. S. Good and Robert Burlock, proprietors of places in Chester wherein are sold a drink known as "rikk," were arrested yesterday by Sheriff Allison, on an indictment returned by the Hancock county court for selling intoxicating liquors.

The officers took Good and Burlock to New Cumberland in the afternoon where by the payment of $200 cash they were allowed to return to Chester to appear Thursday for a preliminary hearing. At that time their bail will be fixed, and a time set for their trial in court, the present grand jury having finished its labors yesterday and adjourned.

Mr. Good reopened his place this morning and continues to do business. He claims the officers found nothing about his premises to indicate a so-called "speak-easy." The Baltimore Brewing company from whom Good obtains his stock, has notified him that they will assist him in the defense of his case. Good has been indicted a number of times by the Hancock authorities.

The Republican County Convention held at Wellsburg Saturday afternoon, resulted in an overwhelming victory for Congressman Dovener, who carried all of the three districts. There were two aspirants for the house of delegates nomination. Henry C. Hervey, who represented the Brooke-Hancock district in the last legislature, and Mayor C. B. Scott, of Bethany. Hervey carried Wellsburg district, giving him four votes, while Scott won in Buffalo and Cross Creek districts, giving him six votes and the nomination. For county superintendent of free schools, C. W. Hogg defeated the present official, Irwin Burge.

Two Women Concerned.

It is stated that the young lady had been cavorting around too much with the other lady's husband, until matters reached a crisis.

GRAND FREE EXCURSION

Saturday, June 28

WE say "Grand Free Excursion to La Belle View Plan of Lots" but in reality it is to the

because the building activity since the Introductory Sale of May 24 has been unparalleled in the history of town building.

463 lots were then sold and even now over 200 of their purchasers are arranging for improvements. Beautiful new residences and business houses are rising up on all sides. Many are completed. The scene is inspiring! The trend of population is going Steubenville-ward, especially La Belle View-ward. Prices have advanced enormously, but during this Second Sale the Company has decided not to raise prices except on fifty very fine Boulevard lots that were not staked or opened at last sale. On these fifty lots the prices have been raised to 25 per cent, but should have been raised 33 to 50 per cent advance. And this is but the beginning! Even the most conservative investors say there is no doubt in the world that this ratio of increase will be far overshadowed in the wonderful boom which has only started.

If you are one of the thousands the deluge of rain disappointed when the first big excursion was run to the Introductory Sale of La Belle View Lots, don't fail to take advantage of this second opportunity to get in on the ground floor. Be one of the first to board the trains that leave Wheeling, Bellaire, etc., for La Belle View property on Saturday, June 28. Be sure you speak for your free tickets before it is too late. Get them now, before your neighbors have snapped them all up.

TICKETS FREE

The grand free excursion gives you an opportunity to investigate this wonderful section—to see what a marvelous wealth of diversified industry is spreading out even beyond the wildest predictions of five years back—to realize how this great new city will make big money for the shrewd ones who get in now. BUT BE SURE AND WRITE FOR THESE FREE TICKETS AT ONCE. REMEMBER THAT THE GRAND FREE EXCURSION TRAINS WILL BE RUN FROM WHEELING, EAST LIVERPOOL, AND ALL INTERMEDIATE POINTS, ON SATURDAY, JUNE 28. TICKETS WILL BE SENT YOU IMMEDIATELY YOUR REQUEST REACHES US. DON'T FORGET THAT IT WILL NOT BE ONLY THE ONES WHO MISSED THE FIRST BIG EXCURSION THAT WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS SECOND ONE—THE BUYERS OF THE FIRST SALE WILL GO AGAIN TO CAPTURE MORE GOLD MINES—SO DON'T GET LEFT ON WHAT IN ALL PROBABILITY WILL BE THE LAST CALL TO THE GREATEST REAL ESTATE PROPOSITION EVER SET FORTH ON THIS PART OF THE EARTH. When you reach the La Belle View Plan of Lots you will see a mighty building boom going on on all sides of you. The level headed investors of the first sale are getting ready for the tremendous appeal for homes that is now going up from the throats of hundreds and hundreds of the 10,000 additional iron workers, tin plate workers, glass workers, clay workers and coal miners about to invade this fruitful field for employment. Look at the fact that prices have already advanced beyond all expectations for your evidence of what the future holds for owners of La Belle View Lots.

THE IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIES WILL CALL 10,000 MORE WORKMEN TO EMPLOYMENT.

Among the names of the great organizations which are erecting new works and adding buildings and improvements are the La Belle Steel Co., Pope Tinplate Co., Ohio Valley Clay Co., National Steel Co., American Steel Hoop Co., Ohio Foundry Co., Steubenville Pottery Co., Steubenville Wall Paper Co., Riverside Blast Furnace Co., Acme Glass Works Co., Hartje Bros. Paper Manufacturers, Jefferson Glass Co., Means Foundry and Machine Co., Robinson & Irwin Machine Co., National Marble Co., and many planing mills.

GIGANTIC NEW INDUSTRIES

The National Steel Company will employ about 2,000 men in the billet and rod mills; the Pope Tinplate Works will start with 800 men, and increase to double this number in the next fourteen months; the La Belle Steel Works employ 2,100 men at present at their new open hearth furnaces and at the new tube mills. When completed this industry alone will give employment to 6,000 men.

It is estimated that the army of workmen in Steubenville and vicinity will be increased to 15,000 and that in less than ten years there will be a compact commercial metropolis of more than 50,000 souls, built up solidly with no vacant land intervening.

La Belle View Will Have Every Modern City Improvement.

LA BELLE VIEW is a part of Steubenville lying in the Third and Fifth wards on a beautiful tableland just above the Panhandle passenger depot. It will inherit every up-to-date convenience that belongs to a progressive municipality whose population is now 15,000 and growing at the rate of 42 per cent. The Steubenville City Councils have appointed a committee to confer with the owners of La Belle View property for the purpose of accepting a magnificent park fronting a great distance along the Boulevard. This park will be improved with gushing springs of pure water, pleasure resorts, fine grounds, lakes, etc.

Arrangements have been made to pave a portion of the Boulevard and the business street. Other extensive city improvements will follow.

There will be city water, natural gas and electric light.

DINNER TO ROYALTY.

Representatives of All Monarchies, at Dinner in London Last Night.

GUESTS OF KING AND QUEEN.

Chamberlains Entertain—Menelick's Representative and Suite Attracted Much Attention—Coronation Rehearsed Yesterday.

London, June 24.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra gave a grand dinner party last night at Buckingham palace to 70 royal personages, who practically represented the sovereigns of all the monarchies of the world.

The list of their majesties' guests was headed by the Czar and Czarina of Russia, who arrived in London last evening, and included an imposing array of princes and princesses and all the members of the British royal family.

Buckingham palace was beautifully decorated and the bands of the Grenadier and the Coldstream guards discoursed throughout the evening. The dinner was followed by a brilliant reception, which was attended by the members of the suites of all the foreign potentates now in London.

The Chamberlains Entertained.

Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, and Mrs. Chamberlain (who was Miss Mary Endicott, of Massachusetts) received the colonial premiers and other distinguished visitors from Great Britain's colonies at their London residence last evening.

A full and strictly private rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies to be held in Westminster abbey took place there yesterday afternoon, in which everybody, with the exception of the royal personages and the participants in the musical and religious features of the functions, rehearsed their respective duties. The archbishop of Canterbury, the Rev. Frederick Temple, and the lord chancellor, the Earl of Halsbury, were among those who were drilled in their parts under the superintendency of the Duke of Norfolk, the earl marshal.

After it was over the musical service for the coronation was rehearsed in full in the church house adjoining the abbey.

Abyssinian Attracts Attention.

None of the special envoys who arrived here yesterday, though they included princes of the greatest European dynasties, aroused as much interest as did Ras Makonnen, the Abyssinian general and special representative of King Menelik. In picturesque and barbarian splendor the Ethiopian commander and his suite paled even the brilliancy of the Oriental princes whom London has become accustomed to during the past week. Makonnen, who has black curly hair and a beard, wore a cloak of white silk, pantaloons, a shoulder cape of heavy white satin, bordered with gold, and a broad brimmed felt hat. Three native chiefs who accompany him were scarcely less gorgeous in their apparel, while the African priest, carrying a heavy silver crozier, was the general's constant companion. Ras Makonnen's native followers carried guns and spears.

Prince Henry Arrived.

Among the other arrivals yesterday were Prince Henry of Prussia, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria, the prince of the Asturias, Crown Prince Gustaf of Sweden and Norway, Admiral Gervais, head of the French mission, and Mgr. Merry Del Val, the papal envoy.

The scenes in the streets yesterday were largely a repetition of those of Sunday. During most of the day they were even more crowded, many of the omnibus lines deserting the main thoroughfares and congested districts and running through back streets.

The decorations were nearing completion yesterday, and the weather, after weeks of cold and rain, became stifling hot.

To Sing Wherever They Arc.

Among the national observances on coronation day which have received the approval of the king is the suggestion, evidently traceable to the simultaneous stoppage of all trains, etc., in the United States for five minutes at 2 p. m. on the day of the late President McKinley's funeral, that at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening every British subject in the United Kingdom and the colonies, whether in the street, at home, in a theater, in church or elsewhere, shall uncover and join in singing "God Save the King." The promoters hope that wherever Britons are assembled in America they will join in singing the national anthem.

NEW ROAD LAW

HOW IT WORKS OVER IN HAN-OVER TOWNSHIP.

For Less Than $800 Work Has Been Done That Formerly Cost Twice as Much.

A correspondent writing from Han-over township on the new road law says:

"Our roads are supposed to be in politics; they are talked of and scrutinized as never before. Men's capacities as trustee, roadmaster or teamsters are now estimated by the condition of our highways.

"Our trustees failed to find outside of their own number enough such help as they deemed efficient to work the roads, and as a consequence they have done a full share themselves, receiving liberal pay. Such a condition will be criticized, no matter how unavoidable it may be.

"The writer has had the privilege of reviewing a considerable portion of the work together with the expenditures for nearly all that is required at this time, to make the highways in proper shape.

"Last week the trustees had expended $757, and they estimated unfinished work would require not over $50 more. It appears that less than $800 has served the township just as well as heretofore nearly double the amount applied miscellaneous by the supervisors. Some extra work has been done in the way of moving stone that have been allowed to accumulate on banks at roadsides, where they were constantly liable to get on the road.

"In several instances byways that never had been worked with a big scraper were neatly rounded up with good ditches on either side; this is the main point of superiority the new system has in the character of the work done.

"If we had some way of reaching the two-day men and still hold to a competent roadmaster who employed teams and men on a business basis, a few years would greatly improve our highways.

"There has been more public funds wasted by misdirected energies through ignorance of supervisors and by shirking prompted by the notion that no one need do his best on public work, than any other way in our farm districts.

TAFT REPORTS TO ROOT

Almost Daily—Latter Refuses to Discuss Matter, at Present.

Washington, June 24.—Secretary Root declines to discuss the details of Governor Taft's negotiations at Rome until they are complete. They are proceeding steadily and in the usual course, each side seeking to make the best possible bargain, with the result that there have been several exchanges since the original proposition of Governor Taft touching the friars' lands. They are reported by the governor to Secretary Root by cable almost daily, with full explanatory comments by himself and suggestions to govern the framing of counterproposals.

The last report from him came to Washington Sunday night in the shape of a copy of the proposal of the committee of cardinals, and the answer to this was dispatched yesterday afternoon. It is said at the war department that while there naturally have been some wide differences between the negotiators, there has been no such thing as an ultimatum or serious hitch, and there is no reason to doubt that a satisfactory agreement will be reached.

The Famous "Traubenkuren" Grape Cures of Germany

—located along the River Rhine, have established a world-wide reputation for their wonderful cures of Wasting Diseases, and for diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and for Constipation. A scientist writing in Johnson's Cyclopaedia on the Grape Cures of Europe says: "Admirable results are attained especially when the 'Grape Cure' has followed suitable treatment of the bowels, but the usefulness of the grape diet is beyond question the main factor in the cures."

On account of the great expense of traveling many cannot afford to avail themselves of this treatment, but with Mull's Grape Tonic, at a nominal cost, a large bottle for 50 cents you have a "Traubenkuren" at your door. All the best features of this celebrated Grape Cure are combined, after years of careful experiment, in

Mull's Grape Tonic

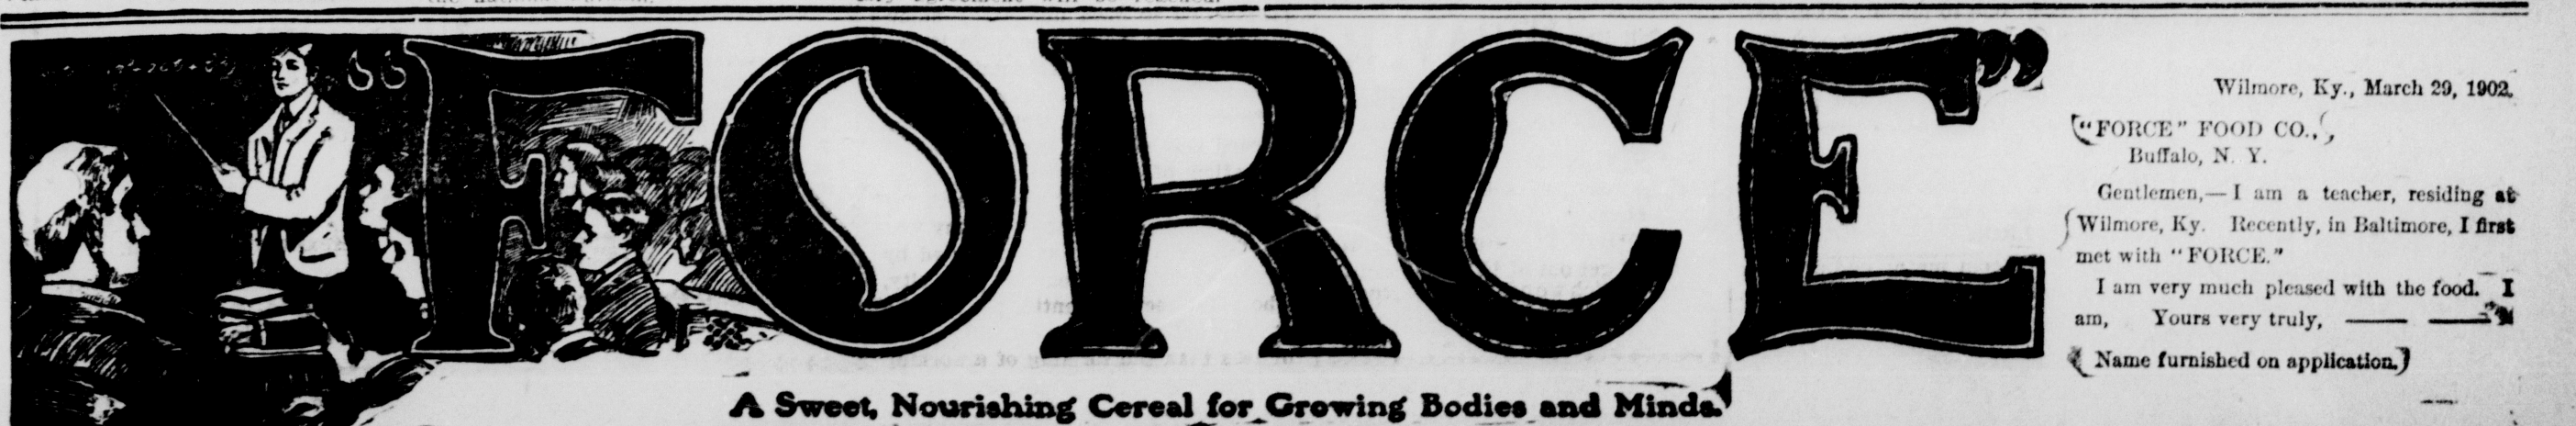

...The Perfect Laxative...

The most quickly effective thing on earth for nature's "house cleaning." It relieves the clogged system of the impurities which poison the blood and drag down the vitality. Physicians and druggists who are familiar with these facts, and all the well informed are, do not hesitate to commend Mull's Grape Tonic, the basis of which is the juice of the grape in all cases where a mild laxative is needed and in diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, and for convalescents or whenever a tonic and builder is needed. STIR IN MINING CIRCLES

A RICH VEIN THAT WAS LOST HAS BEEN FOUND.

Yields 72 Ounces to the Ton—Good News to Holders of Ceramic City Mine Stock.

Special to The News, Denver, Col.

Ouray, Colo., June 12.—There is considerable stir in mining circles here over the showing being made in the west side gold belt, immediately adjoining Ouray. Gold has been discovered in this section in quantities, that may prove with further development the equal of anything in the San Juan. Mr. W. A. Hart, of the Ceramic Mining company has been successful in his exploration work, to the extent of finding the lost vein which carried the high gold values in the Stenographer, during the hey-day of its activity. Assays of ore taken from this vein run seventy-two ounces to the ton.

The Stenographer originally belonged to Alexander & Pierson, who bonded the property to London parties. The London company operated the mine for some time, but the course pursued led them away from the vein carrying the rich values, being misled into following a large cross vein which runs through the property in a northerly direction. Becoming discouraged in their efforts to strike something rich the company abandoned the property and allowed their claim thereon to lapse.

A short time ago, Mr. Hart, who is a man of wide experience in the mining industry, examined the property, and to him the mistake made by the London company became at once apparent. He succeeded in interesting a number of capitalists in the mine and organized a company. The company acquired title to the property and also to a number of other claims, by purchase and location, immediately adjacent to the Stenographer, and active work will soon be in progress on the group. Men are at work repairing the old trail and building new ones, preparing to forward supplies and putting on a large force. New boarding and ore houses are being built and work on the erection of a twenty stamp mill will soon be begun.

Work is progressing steadily on the Box canon, and the tunnel is being driven toward the contact vein that was opened up in the Merchants properties on the west. It is expected that the vein will be cut within another fifty feet. There is little doubt that good bodies of ore will be found in the contact. A tunnel lower down on the mountain extended into this vein originally and from this tunnel shipping ore was taken out at a much greater distance from the contact than fifty feet, but the mouth of the tunnel was too near the general level to furnish a sufficient dumping ground, hence the new tunnel now being driven.

the most prominent men identified with the new company. The statement that the D. E. McNicol Pottery company is identified with the new concern is somewhat premature. A member of the firm when seen this morning gave out the following statement: "While we have been asked to give a price on our pottery in this city, we have refrained from doing so up to the present time. So far we have nothing to do with the company, but what will be done in the future is a matter that cannot be spoken of just now."

It was learned from other sources that up to the present time the Harker company is not identified with the new concern. While overtures are said to have been made by the Laughlin combination for the Harkers to enter the deal, nothing has been done so far. The intimation is that the Harker company was approached in the same manner that the McNicol Co. was, asked for a price on its plant, and nothing more.

No statement could be secured from representatives of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company today, as Col. John N. Taylor and Joseph G. Lee were in Pittsburg attending to some other important matters. They are expected to return to the city this evening.

Neither could a statement concerning the reported combination be secured from those connected with the Laughlin company, for when a reporter talked to Secretary W. E. Wells he had nothing to say. Others connected with this company were at Pittsburg during the day.

This is the second time an attempt has been made to form a combination by L. I. Aarons, president of the Laughlin company. Several years ago Mr. Aarons attempted to form a combine among the local potteries by offering owners of such plants one-third in stock, one-third in bonds and the other third in cash. A number of manufacturers were approached on the subject at the time, but nothing ever came of the deal. The project was dropped rather suddenly, and while it met with the favor of some, opposition was met on other sides.

Now that the formation of such a deal is assured, nothing more will be heard of the proposition presented by Messrs. Trainer and Irwin of Chicago. These gentlemen sent the same proposition to each and every manufacturer in the city, but little if any faith was pinned to the details of the form of arrangement.

From an indirect source it was learned this morning that the plan of formation of this combination is almost the same as that upon which the East Liverpool Pottery company was formed. This plan was originated by a well known resident of this city, who is indirectly identified with the pottery industry. It was nothing more or less than the forming of a working arrangement among potteries of the same class, all through the city. When this is done a working arrangement can be secured with other combinations. It may be a hard matter to deal with probably 50 manufacturers, but when only a few persons are to be interviewed the matter of forming a combination is much easier. Such is the argument put up by a well known manufacturer. Place all potteries on an equal footing, and the matter of forming a pottery combine will be easier work.

Additional facts concerning this new deal are expected upon the return from Pittsburg of the East Liverpool parties interested.

FOUR OTHER FACTORIES ARE ALSO MENTIONED

And It Is Predicted That At Least a Dozen More Will Enter the New Company.

"A combination of six large pottery companies, including the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, the largest in the world, and the Homer Laughlin China company, perhaps the most famous in the west, has just been effected through the efforts of Louis I. Aarons, the master, who is president of the latter company, and has offices in the Second National bank building, Pittsburg," says the Dispatch. "The aggregate value of the plants, at a very conservative estimate, is $5,000,000, and it is predicted that before long 12 more potteries will be in the combine."

"The other charter members of the combine are the Harker Pottery company, the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, the Taylor, Lee & Smith company and the Edwin M. Knowles China company. The latter two have their plants at Chester, W. Va., just across the river from East Liverpool, where the other four companies are located. Together they employ about 7,000 persons."

"The consolidation has been in process of formation for six months or more. The papers were finally exchanged yesterday after the receipt of the charter from Trenton, N. J., on Friday afternoon. The capitalization is fixed at the nominal figure of $250,000."

"The title of the new corporation was not announced last night, but the name of the trust which died a boring two years ago, the American Pottery company, will probably be adopted. The indications are that Col. John N. Taylor, president of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, will be president, and that Mr. Aarons, who is president of the Homer Laughlin China company, will be first vice president."

"The new company is to be the nucleus for a large combination, to include all the principal plants in the west. The total value of those in the district about East Liverpool is about $15,000,000, while $3,000,000 would represent the money invested in the others west of the Alleghenies. There is little probability of the great interests in the eastern district, about Trenton, N. J., being included in the new deal."

"The present is the third attempt that has been made to combine the earthenware plants of the country. The first was in 1898, when John R. Dos Passos, of New York, an agent of J. Pierpont Morgan, secured options on every plant of any importance in the country except two. The transfers were made January 1, 1899, and the potters actually ran under the name of the new combination for nearly two months. The greed of the promoting syndicate, however, killed the deal. The underwriters in New York insisted in the increasing of the capitalization to $28,000,000 and retaining double the amount of stock as commission that had first been proposed. The potters withdrew, losing thousands of dollars in the venture."

The story published in Pittsburg this morning is one that has been known to many people in this city since the last of April. However, at no time was the matter in shape to be given to the public until the last few days when one of the largest manufacturers interested in the deal made the statement to a News Review reporter that matters were being closed and a fortnight would see the formation of the new combination. It has also been stated that had it not been

for the serious illness of Marcus Aarons, of the Laughlin company, the deal would have been consummated several weeks ago, but under the circumstances definite action was deferred for some time. Conferences have been held in this city and also in Pittsburg concerning the matter, but not until the last few weeks was it in such shape that the deal was considered likely to be completed.

A telegram from S. K. Dickson, secretary of state, at Trenton, N. J., to the News Review yesterday afternoon stated no charter for the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles or the Laughlin company was on file.

It is stated upon authority that is considered most reliable that the new combination will be operated under a name that will represent the name of

ACTION TAKEN

IN THE VITAL MATTER OF PROVIDING NEW SEWERS.

The Commission Met Today and Made Recommendations to Council.

Action on a report submitted by Health Officer Burgess was to have been taken by the commissioner and it was considered urgent that something be done in the matter. At the meeting of the board of health last week Mr. Burgess was notified to present the property owners along certain designated thoroughfares with a petition for their signatures, which would signify their wish for sewers. In pursuance of this order Mr. Burgess visited the owners along Thompson avenue, Rayne street and Vine street and reports that every owner signed the petition. The petitions were acted upon by the commission today and sewers recommended.

Before council can take any action in the matter by law it is required that the sewer commission recommend that the work be done.

Interceded With the Mayor and Secured Release of an Arrested Brother.

There was quite a scene on Sixth street early last evening when George Starhill was placed under arrest by Officer McDermott for being drunk and using profane language. He resisted the officer and made the air blue with profane oaths, but was yanked to central station notwithstanding.

A sister of the man followed him to jail and plead with the mayor for her brother's release, promising to take him home and keep him there until sober. His honor did as requested.

Declined the Appointment.

George W. McCook, Steubenville, has declined the appointment as member of the commission to assist in the celebration of the Ohio centennial at Chillicothe, tendered him by Governor Nash, and Robert W. Manley, of Chillicothe, a descendant of one of the early governors of Ohio, has been appointed in his stead. The position carries with it no salary.

Lost His Way.

A young man, aged about 23 years, performed the remarkable feat of losing his way on the train yesterday, and did not get his bearings until a conductor on the C. & P. kindly laid him over in this city. The depot officials used their good offices and sent the traveler back to Wellsville, where he was able to catch the right train and resume his journey westward.

Mrs. Emma Cassiday Has the Man Locked Up in the City Jail.

VIOLENT BLOWS STRUCK

And She Feared For Her Life—The Man Will Be Taken to Lisbon and Required to Give Bond—Divorce Proceedings Probable.

In a pitiable condition, her face showing quite perceptibly the marks of numerous blows and her body badly bruised from her head to her feet, Mrs. Emma Cassiday, of Bank street, appeared in Squire McLane's court yesterday and asked that her husband, Thomas F. Cassiday, be arrested and dealt with by the law. She feared for her life.

The squire gave Constable Powell orders to arrest the man. He was later arraigned and the testimony offered permitted the justice to have him placed in the city jail with orders that he be taken to Lisbon tomorrow to answer to probate court.

It is said that Cassiday is a periodical drinker and that when he gets on a spree takes delight in abusing his wife. It is stated, he went home drunk yesterday and gave his wife a beating too horrible to describe. Her screams, it is said were heard for a block away.

Mrs. Cassiday stated that she did not want him tried for assault and battery but would rather that he be placed under a peace bond, which she knows he will break, and then he will be sent to the workhouse. While he is incarcerated there she announces that she will begin proceedings for divorce.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Daughters of Liberty is being held in the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall over the postoffice. About 70 delegates from different parts of the state have arrived in the city, the great majority of them coming yesterday, and it is predicted that the meeting will be one of the most successful ever held.

At the reception last evening fully 150 people were present and they all in one accord pronounced the entertainment very fine and highly enjoyable. The hall was prettily decorated with the national emblem, giving the spacious room an air most appropriate to the occasion.

John W. Sellers as master of ceremonies called the meeting to order and the following pleasing program was carried out: Singing of "America" by the audience; address of welcome, Florence M. Sellers, Jr., ex-state counselor; response, Adeline P. Lockwood, state counselor, of Bellaire; recitation, Leroy Orr; vocal solo, Miss Alice Devan; recitation, Miss Heakin; vocal solo, Miss Eleanor Orr; recitation, Prof. S. M. STILL OTHERS LIKELY TO DIE

Wreck at Mingo Junction More Serious in Its Results Than First Reported.

AMONG THE BADLY HURT

Are Men Who Make Their Homes in Wellsville—The Condition of Two Is Considered Most Precarious.

The wreck at Mingo Junction yesterday morning which resulted in the almost instant death of two brakemen and the maiming of almost a dozen other railroad men is even worse than the early account published in this paper. One or two more victims of the accident stand a poor show of recovery.

William Hanniford, conductor on train No. 85, will probably die. He is at the Gill hospital in Steubenville.

In the account of the wreck given yesterday it was stated that Hanniford was a resident of Bellaire. He formerly lived there but of late has been a resident of Cleveland. For a few weeks he has been running between Cleveland and Wellsville as conductor. When here roomed on Commerce street. Mrs. Hanniford was here a short time three weeks ago and returned to Cleveland. Hanniford was transferred again to the river division Saturday evening and was on his first run to Bellaire. He intended to move his home to Wellsville where he is so well known.

Mrs. Hanniford arrived in the city from Cleveland on her way to the bedside of her husband yesterday. He was crushed internally and is conscious only a few minutes at a time. The doctors do not expect his recovery.

Elmer Cooper, engineer of the fated pony No. 404, was carried from the train to his home on Commerce street in Wellsville. A foot and arm are mashed. Cooper is badly hurt, injured internally and looks like a corpse.

Engineer Ed Duty, of Wellsville, who was acting as pilot on train 85, is at the Gill hospital and very feeble. His condition does not warrant his removal home. He was at first reported killed, then only to have had a hand broken, but is hurt internally and is in a critical state.

Portions of wrecked engines, the

mogul No. 87 and the pony No. 404, have been brought to the Wellsville shops.

Two brakemen who were killed were were momentarily in the utmost agony, frightfully scalded and burned, but their injuries were so terrible and vital that fortunately death speedily ended their sufferings.

The blame seems to rest with the pony crew, but they were only partially responsible. Train No. 87, supposed to run from Conway, started from Wellsville and the pony crew presumed that it had been annulled, as it was not supposed to start from Wellsville. Crews are supposed to "make time," and are "called down" if they do not come up to the standard. With so many trains running on the C. & P. desperate chances are frequently run by conductors and engineers who wish to make a good record.

Hughes, of the Brotherhood, announced at noon today that he was unable so far to give the names of the committee that would represent the operatives at the conference which commences tomorrow, but hoped to be able to do so before evening. The manufacturers have prepared their answer to the communication that was received from the Brotherhood, and this will be the first matter that will be presented to the operatives at the start of the conferences, which will be held in the rooms of the Potters' club tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

KILLED ON RAILROAD

He Was Walking the Track and His Widow Demands $10,000.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Susan A. Chestnut, administratrix of the estate of William Chestnut, of Franklin Square, has entered suit against the Erie railroad company for $10,000 damages. On the evening of June 15, 1901, Mr. Chestnut was walking along the railroad track near Franklin Square and was hit by a train and killed.

Mrs. Chestnut claims in her petition that residents of Franklin Square were in the habit of walking on the track between Franklin Square and Leetonia; that the engineer in charge of the train that killed Mr. Chestnut did not slow down when he saw him on the track, and that he did not exercise due care, as he knew Mr. Chestnut was deaf.

A FARM HAND'S BILL

It Amounts to $3,200 for Work and Rent of Land.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Charles Matthews, of Franklin township, has entered suit against C. B. Connell, as administrator of the estate of Mary J. Matthews, deceased, for $3,200.

The plaintiff's claim is for work in managing the farm of the deceased and for the use and occupation by her for five years of plaintiff's farm in Hanover township.

WALKED OUT OF THE JAIL

William Jones, alias Thomas Connelly, the pickpocket, who was arrested last week at Chester for pocket picking and taken to New Cumberland, colly effected his escape from the jail this morning at 8 o'clock, walking out while Guards Basil West and Stanton Milby were eating breakfast, they having left the prisoner but a moment before.

Connelly performed the trick very smoothly, the door of the jail having been left unlocked, and the guards being in close proximity. They failed to observe Connelly, and he made his exit good.

The discovery of his absence was made shortly afterward and a thorough search was at once instituted, but his whereabouts have not as yet been discovered, or any possible clue leading to them.

Connelly has been identified by Grant S. Ward, Pennsylvania company inspector of police, as William Jones, for whom the authorities have been looking for the past seven years. Ward visited the New Cumberland jail, and accosted Jones with "Hello Bill." Jones said he did not know him. Ward asked him to hold up his right hand. He complied, showing that there was a scar on it, and also his left hand, there being a scar on his thumb. He had other marks on his hands and body by which he was easily identified.

The prisoner received a special delivery letter from Rochester, Pa., and it was at once intercepted by Sheriff Allison, who still has possession of it. Jones robbed John Maier, of Homestead, Pa., of a pocketbook at Chester. It contained a railway ticket and 11 cents, together with some papers. He failed to secure a large roll of bills which Maier had secreted in another pocket. It is thought he is gone for good.

WANTS A DEED

Center Township Man Enters Suit Against His Father's Heirs.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—John E. E. Carlisle, of Center township, has entered suit against Thos. B. Carlisle and other heirs of Jonas Carlisle. He claims that he purchased 25 acres of land in Center township from his father, Jonas Carlisle, that he was to pay for this land by a note for $521.50, which had been given by his father to Thos. B. Carlisle.

His father died in January, 1900, and the plaintiff claims that he has paid off the note and asks that the heirs give him a deed for the property.

EAST END

LIGHT WON'T SHINE

Councilmanic Committee Sees No Necessity for One That Was Requested.

At a recent meeting of council Dr. Marshall, of the East End, asked that a small light be placed at the corner of Erie street and Dewey avenue. The matter was referred to the light committee, and last evening the members of the committee went to the East End and looked at the location where the light was requested. It is predicted that no light will be placed there for several months. There is not a house in the immediate vicinity and at present only the foundation of the parsonage of the Erie street M. E. church is at the corner.

It will be months before the parsonage is completed, and much longer before the church is ready for occupancy. When there is sufficient cause for a light to be placed in that locality the committee of council will act favorably on the matter, but not before. So said a member of the committee last evening after he had visited the East End.

And a Horse Stolen—Property of Mrs. Ida Clark, East End.

Horse thieves have again invaded the East End and last evening a valuable working horse was stolen from a stable in an alley south of St. George street. It was owned by Mrs. Ida Clark, who keeps a grocery on Mulberry street, and was valued at $100. This morning there was no clue to the thieves, although officers were working on the case, and it was expected that by evening a clue would be obtained.

The horse was placed in its stable as usual in the evening and the door securely locked, but in gaining an entrance to the building the thieves broke the lock. Those living in the vicinity heard no particular noise during the night.

It is believed the theft was committed by the same persons who stole Larkins & Ferguson's horse from the Waggle farm recently.

An Enjoyable Social.

The social given last evening at the residence of Rev. N. M. Crowe, on Pennsylvania avenue, was one of the most pleasant events of the season. It was intended that the pastor should entertain the congregation, but more than this occurred, for the members of the church brought refreshments with them, including 10 gallons of ice cream. It was proposed to make merry on the lawn surrounding the house, but the weather was too chilly for this and a retreat was made to the par-

Harry Cochran, who has been speeding several years in the Philippines, has returned to the East End. He has been in the army.

Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles, that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual costiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, dispondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try one bottle first. We have never known of it failing. If so something more serious is the matter with you. Ask your oldest druggist.

Care of the Stomach.

At no time of year is it so necessary to be careful of the digestive organs as in summer. Vitality is always at a low ebb during a spell of severe heat, and the stomach needs a tonic. BLOOD WINE is highly recommended, because it aids digestion and gives a normal tone and strength to the whole system. For sale by Will Reed, Hodson's Drugstore

Little credence is given the following which appeared in a Wheeling paper yesterday. At police headquarters nothing is known of the alleged missing girl:

"A pretty 15-year-old girl is missing from East Liverpool, and it is alleged she has been led astray by a Wheeling traveling man. She disappeared from her home last Thursday. She went to Warrenton to participate in a concert, being somewhat of an elocutionist, but did not return home, and her parents became alarmed and started an investigation. She was traced to Warrenton, where she was in the company of a Wheeling traveling man in the employ of a wholesale grocery house. Sunday two men arrived at Martin's Ferry in search of the girl. Two valises recognized as hers were discovered, one at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh station, and the other at the Bellevue hotel. The men refused to divulge the girl's name, or that of the traveling man in whose company she is alleged to have been."

Attempt to Use It and Got Badly Punished as a Result.

Passengers to this city on the late Pittsburg train Saturday evening witnessed a fight that came near being attended by serious results. A passenger sat down on the arm of a seat which was occupied by an Italian, who with other of his countrymen were coming to this city. The Italian requested the man to get up, but no attention was paid. Finally the men back of the Italian saw several queer moves by the foreigner, and found that he had a large knife which he was about to run into the hip of the man on the arm of his seat.

An East Liverpool Girl Was Sent After Being Released to See Her Father.

Attila, a young daughter of Henry Lowry, was taken before Judge Boone at Lisbon, about two years ago, charged with theft. She was taken to Fairmount Home, where she remained until about a month ago, when she returned to her home by special permission to see her father who, it was claimed, was lying at the point of death. He did not die, but announced his intention to keep the child with him if possible.

Judge Boone was notified of this intention through Supt. Southworth who promptly instructed Sheriff Leonard to go to East Liverpool and secure the child and return it to the Home.

When Haynes approached the beast it charged on him. The man broke a rotten club over the bull's head but was knocked down and being savagely attacked when George Farrell ran to his rescue. Haynes was severely bruised and wounded about the chest. His condition is not serious.

Chronic Diarrhoea.

This disease is generally regarded as incurable, mainly for the reason that the remedies usually employed are ineffectual. That it can be cured, however, has been fully proven in many cases. The following tells of one of them: Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburgh, Ga., says: "I had been suffering from chronic diarrhoea for seven years. Last year I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it has entirely cured me. I had spent lots of money for doctors' medicine in the run of the seven years. If it had not been for this remedy I would have been dead now, and I feel that I can never say too much in its favor or recommend it too highly." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

Commenting on the fact that statistics of university graduating classes
show probably 90 per cent to be Republicans in politics, the New York Tribune asks: "What is to be the future of the Democratic party? A fortuitous swarm of jarring atoms, with
few educated leaders who know things
and can look ahead, and with few educated followers that can talk well, or
write well, or have the knack of getting
together in political battles? Aimless,
confused and distracted, they are asking in forlorn accents 'where they are
at' and are stumbling into the ditch of
defeat even before the lines of battle
men who propose to take a part in
that is not only looking backward, but
going backward.

Now a medical man arises to state
announcing that it would raise the
depopulated through its agency, the
world is still skeptical, and likely to receive the announcement of the new discovery with many grains of allowance.

It is asserted that nearly 18,000
Americans found homes in the Dominion of Canada last year, not counting Klondike gold seekers and those
whose migration was forced by embarrassment charges. At this rate of progress, annexation sentiment ought
to increase at a rapid rate.

The doctors report that the trouble
with Hobson is "compound hypermet-
ropic astigmatism, retinal hyperemia
and trachoma." This, compounded
with his habit of promiscuous oscula-
tion, certainly makes his condition
grave.

In Denmark the people continue to
be excited over the proposition to sell
the Danish West Indies to the United States. If they would warrant the islands volcano-proof, Uncle Sam might
evince more interest.

If Bryan can get that fusion nomination for governor of Nebraska he had better clinch it. It begins to look as if it were the only political honor likely
to be offered to him.

The new King of Saxony is 70 years
old. There seems to be one place left

good jobs.

A man was killed in Tennessee the
other day for traducing the army in the Philippines. The "aunties"
should take warning.

Gov. Odell, of New York, predicts
that his state will again go Republican
next fall. He is undoubtedly a true
prophet.

The 7-year locusts, whose visit was predicted, have failed to arrive. Nobody has yet expressed any regret.

A June snowstorm, like many other things that are marvelous, is an Ohio
product.

There won't be any Democratic harmony if William J. Bryan can prevent it.

Grover Cleveland, in being abused by Bryan, is again in distinguished company.

England's week of joy bids fair to
be converted into one of sorrow.

Lisbon thirst may still be gratified.

M. J. Timlin.

News of the death of M. J. Timlin,
who was seriously injured in Athens
county last Saturday, the facts of
yesterday afternoon. While Mr. Tim-
lin's injuries were considered serious,
it was the belief of his many friends
and about this city that he would ultimately recover. Sunday, however,
tated near the ankle, and the injuries
to his back were so great that his recovery was at last found to be impossible.

Mr. Timlin is well known in this city. Besides being president of the Belmont Oil and Gas Co., of this city,
he was interested with other East
Liverpool business men in various enterprises. His last visit to this city
was about two weeks ago, when he was
the guest of Charles A. Smith. Mr.
Timlin resided with his wife and three children, at Moundsville, and was
about 43 years old. Several years ago
he was executor of a large estate near Smith's Ferry. He had been identified with the oil and gas business all
his life.

Robert Alexander.

Robert Alexander, aged about 35, of Wellsville, died in Texas last night,
from consumption. He left last autumn on account of failing health, hoping to receive benefit from the arid atmosphere of the southwest. A telegram received this morning announced his
death. Mr. Alexander lost a leg by being run over by the cars when a child,
but when he grew up became a telegraph operator and was in the employ
of the C. & P. for several years. He was a son of Mrs. Hugh Alexander, of
John Alexander; Mrs. O. C. Wells,
Pittsburg; Mrs. W. D. Moore and Mrs.
Mary Eckfeld, Wellsville. Owing to
his amiable disposition he had many
friends, especially among the railroad
men. The remains will be brought to Wellsville for burial.

Special Correspondence.

New Castle, Pa., June 24.—The following officers have been elected by
local union No. 54, of this city: President, S. Dobbs; vice president, C.
Swan; recording secretary, W. Potter;
tician, R. A. Wood; inspector, M. Lan-
than; inside guard, S. Brooks; outside
guard, W. Williamson; trustees, 12
months, R. A. Wood, six months, S.
Dobbs.

Pep Glenn is a new arrival at the
sanitary pottery.

The sanitary works have just completed the new sagger kiln.

Local union No. 54 has changed its meeting night from Wednesday night
to Friday.

A social given for the benefit of John Munro, was largely attended, and
a neat sum will be given him.

loaf for the Fourth of July. A large number of the Shenango boys will spend the Fourth camping.

Rusby and Bradley are two new ar-
rivals at the Shenango.

There is some talk of the New Castle China pottery loafing but one day for the Fourth.

Quite a number of buyers have arrived in the city during the past few
some extensive business is being placed. Among those that have registered at the Thompson house are Hugh Nevin, of Rochester, N. Y., and his
brother, George S. Nevin, of San Francisco. These gentlemen are connected with large crockery stores in their respective towns, and will spend several days in the city. Two buyers
from Corsicana, Tex., W. M. and Clifford Tatum, are also in the city. H. J.
Blakeny, also of Texas, is placing
some large business with several local
firms.

P. P. Wilbur, a Zanesville potter,
is trying to organize a company to build a pottery at Dresden, O. His proposition is for the citizens to organize a company with a capital stock
of $20,000 and employ him at a salary
of $100 per month and manufacture
the jug on a royalty, or buy the patent at $5,000. Mr. Wilbur and a brother operated a small plant at Saltillo
about two years ago, but a fire destroyed their plant and crippled them
financially. Since then Wilbur has
been working in other potteries.

From the information that was received from a number of manufacturers today, many of the potteries will
suspend operations next Saturday for
not stop until Thursday evening, July
3. On this date the Smith-McNicol
is expected to stop for a short vacation. The plants operated by the Laughlin company will close Saturday
for two weeks. Other plants will be stopped as conditions require, but it
is thought the rest will not last more
than two weeks in any case.

Everything is in readiness to commence work at the plant of the East
Liverpool Sagger company on Second
street. There is one thing that is delaying the start, and that is the
non-arrival of a large pulley that is
to be placed on the shaft that operates
the pans and the pug mills. It is thought that operations will be started
within a week, though it was expected
to start the plant this week.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 at a
meeting last evening in Knights of Columbus hall, elected officers for the
new term as follows: President,
Frederick Fitzgerald; vice president,
Harry VanFossen; recording secretary, Lawrence White; financial secretary, Harry Smith; treasurer, T. O.
Terrence; one per cent secretary,
Charles Pollock.

A party of operatives employed at
the Union are planning a trip to the
northern part of the state, where they
will remain camp for two weeks, or
during the shut down. Among those who will make the trip are Elijah
Eardley, William Messer, Robert
Steeley, John DeBee, Basil Rowe, El-
mer and Walter Smith, Edward Cas-
sidy, Ed Provo and William Gilchrist.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Globe
were unable to work yesterday. Last week the crown of a kiln fell in just
as it was being fired, but luckily no
ware was damaged, and no person was
injured. The necessary repairs are

officers at a meeting held last Saturday night, and will elect next Saturday. A committee was appointed at
and make a report at the next meet-
ing. The new officers will take their
seat the first meeting night in July.

The work of repainting the exterior
of the Sevres pottery on Second street
has about been completed. The improvement adds much to the appearance of the plant, as nothing of the
of the building for several years.

Dippers' local No. 16, and printers'
and transferers' local No. 32, met in
their respective halls last evening but
nothing out of the ordinary business
was transacted.

Many improvements are being made
at the old Lacy pottery at Trenton.
New boilers are about to be installed,
and it is said that an additional kiln
is also to be built.

ing a plate fitter at the Diamond for many months, has resigned, and is
now located at Canonsburg, Pa.

James Stewart, a glost kilnman at
the Union, who has been very ill for
bench, starting work yesterday.

The N. U. Walker sewer pipe works
at Walker, belonging to the combine,
are being extensively repaired, and

The American China company, of Toronto, will shut down in a few days
until after the Fourth, to allow em-

Newt Logan, of East Liverpool, as
accepted a position in the decorating
department at the American China
company plant, Toronto.

John Denning, who has been working as a glost kilnman at the Union
for several months, has resigned his
position.

The Patterson foundry has received
a large order for work from a new
pottery to be located at Logan, O.

An electric clay drilling machine
will be put in the clay mine at the Vulcan brick works, Wellsville.

A new toilet set is about to be placed on the market by the Goodwin
Pottery company.

George Worcester, a dipper at the Klondike, is laid up with a bad felon
on his thumb.

The Calumet sewer pipe works, El-
liottsville, are building four large new
kilns.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Smith-
Phillips plant did not work yesterday.

The Wellsville China company will
close down Friday for two weeks.

An Enjoyable Picnic.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church held its annual picnic
yesterday at Rock Springs park. Not
a very large crowd was present owing
to the weather. The old pavilion was
the scene of much merriment when the
entire company set down to a table
laden with all kinds of delicacies. Notwithstanding the coolness of the
weather, those present report an unusually fine time.

GRAVE CRIME CHARGED

JACOB FICKES GOES TO THE COUNTY JAIL AT LISBON.

Mrs. William Peddler, of Yellow Creek, Accuses Him of Attacking Her at Night.

Jacob Fickes yesterday was bound over to court in the sum of $500 on a grave charge before Justice Daniel S. McIntosh, of Yellow Creek. A preliminary hearing was given him on complaint of Mrs. Kate Peddler, wife of William Peddler. She is a woman of high standing in the neighborhood, and charges Fickes with having entered her room shortly after midnight Friday morning and attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Peddler was visiting at the residence of John Forbes, near the Oak Ridge church. It is alleged that Fickes forced open a screen door and got into the house. When Mrs. Peddler awoke Fickes was in her room and the plucky woman struggled with him, succeeding in putting him out of the house. The other members of the household were aroused and a complaint was sworn out before Justice McIntosh.

Fickes was arrested by Constable John Dorman. The prisoner was unable to furnish bond and has been taken to the county jail at Lisbon. He is said to be partially lacking mentally. If Mrs. Peddler's story is true—and there is no reason for doubting her integrity—the assault was vicious, and swift punishment will doubtless be meted out to her assailant.

A STORE ROBBERED

Chewing Gum, Tobacco and Cigars Taken From Harry Hale's Place.

At the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets last night some marauder helped himself to $25 worth of cigars, tobacco and chewing gum. Harry Hale's place of business was entered by the large transom over the broad front door.

The removal of a quart of ice cream from the refrigerator showed that the man of easy ways tranquil in his method, was epicurean in taste and took his time. All the cash had been removed from the place so that no money was obtained. A regular night patrolman is assigned to that district, but the entry of the premises was not discovered until the proprietor opened his store in the morning.

A group of boys were found during the forenoon on the hillside with a lot of chewing gum but Hale could not assert positively that it was his. The boys were taken to the county jail and pumped, but refused to give any information. They were released.

During the night it was reported by a passer-by that some one was inside the store room of J. H. Aten and with lanterns and pistols the night police made a detour of the premises from cellar to garret but found it was a false alarm.

Took His Overcoat Along.

Prof. J. L. McDonald, superintendent of the Wellsville schools, went to Put-in-Bay yesterday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio State Teachers' association. When the committee decided on the place for holding the session they thought that the last of June would be very hot and that a cool spot on the bay should be selected. Prof. McDonald had his overcoat with him.

Board of Education Meeting.

At a meeting of the board of education last evening the usual bills were ordered paid and the building committee was instructed to obtain estimates on the repair on the heating apparatus of the Central school building which is in bad shape and will cost considerable money. VENDERS OF RIKK WERE ARRESTED

E. S. GOOD AND ROBERT BURLOCK ARE THE ACCUSED.

The Hancock Grand Jury Has Indicted Them for Selling Intoxicants.

E. S. Good and Robert Burlock, proprietors of places in Chester wherein are sold a drink known as "rikk," were arrested yesterday by Sheriff Allison, on an indictment returned by the Hancock county court for selling intoxicating liquors.

The officers took Good and Burlock to New Cumberland in the afternoon where by the payment of $200 cash they were allowed to return to Chester to appear Thursday for a preliminary hearing. At that time their bail will be fixed, and a time set for their trial in court, the present grand jury having finished its labors yesterday and adjourned.

Mr. Good reopened his place this morning and continues to do business. He claims the officers found nothing about his premises to indicate a so-called "speak-easy." The Baltimore Brewing company from whom Good obtains his stock, has notified him that they will assist him in the defense of his case. Good has been indicted a number of times by the Hancock authorities.

GRAND JURY RETURNS

Three Chester Men Indicted for Liquor Selling—Several Bills Ignored.

The grand jury in session at New Cumberland yesterday found the following true bills: E. S. Good, Robert Burlock and Wm. Gledennig, Chester, one each for selling spirituous liquors; Wm. Jones, alias Connelly, larceny from person; Peter Fulmer, felonious assault.

No bills were found against Jos. Fargo, housebreaking, or C. Todd, who shot a man named Huff. No indictment was returned against Obrey Miller, charged with inciting a riot at the Chelsea pottery.

The following were grand jurors from Grant district: T. R. Cunningham, Baker Allison, G. B. Allison, J. C. Calhoun. Attorney Ingram, of Chester, was also present at court.

Dovener and Hervey Win.

The Republican County Convention held at Wellsburg Saturday afternoon, resulted in an overwhelming victory for Congressman Dovener, who carried all of the three districts. There were two aspirants for the house of delegates nomination. Henry C. Hervey, who represented the Brooke-Hancock district in the last legislature, and Mayor C. B. Scott, of Bethany. Hervey carried Wellsburg district, giving him four votes, while Scott won in Buffalo and Cross Creek districts, giving him six votes and the nomination. For county superintendent of free schools, C. W. Hogg defeated the present official, Irwin Burge.

Two Women Concerned.

Passengers on the evening cars leaving the park Sunday evening were attracted by the unusual scene of one woman slapping the face of another and giving her a tongue lashing. It is stated that the young lady had been cavorting around too much with the other lady's husband, until matters reached a crisis.

Building Is Active.

Contractor H. M. Ralston is completing three or four new dwellings. Contractor Crail, of Chester, is also completing about 12. He has lately become a resident of Chester. Mayor Shrader has also under contract about 12 new dwellings. Work on these structures is progressing favorably.

Coming Picnics.

The following picnics are billed for Rock Springs for the following dates: Hancock public schools, of Pittsburg, June 25; U. P. Sunday school, of Wheeling, June 27; M. P. Sunday school, of Pittsburg, July 1, and the business men's picnic of Coshocton, Ohio, July 3.

GRAND FREE EXCURSIONTO LA BELLE VIEW PLAN OF LOTS*AT STEUBENVILLE, OHIO*Saturday, June 28

because the building activity since the Introductory Sale of May 24 has been unparalleled in the history of town building.

463 lots were then sold and even now over 200 of their purchasers are arranging for improvements. Beautiful new residences and business houses are rising up on all sides. Many are completed. The scene is inspiring! The trend of population is going Steubenville-ward, especially La Belle View-ward. Prices have advanced enormously, but during this Second Sale the Company has decided not to raise prices except on fifty very fine Boulevard lots that were not staked or opened at last sale. On these fifty lots the prices have been raised 10 per cent, but should have been raised 25 per cent, as investors who bought the adjoining Boulevard lots are asking as high as 33 to 50 per cent advance. And this is but the beginning! Even the most conservative investors say there is no doubt in the world that this ratio of increase will be far overshadowed in the wonderful boom which has only started.

If you are one of the thousands the deluge of rain disappointed when the first big excursion was run to the Introductory Sale of La Belle View Lots, don't fail to take advantage of this second opportunity to get in on the ground before it is too late. Get them now, before your neighbors have snapped them all up.

TICKETS FREE

The grand free excursion gives you an opportunity to investigate this wonderful section—to see what a marvelous wealth of diversified industry is spreading out even beyond the wildest predictions of five years back—to realize how this great new city will make big money for the shrewd ones who get in now. BUT BE SURE AND WRITE FOR THESE FREE TICKETS AT ONCE. REMEMBER THAT THE GRAND FREE EXCURSION TRAINS WILL BE RUN FROM WHEELING, EAST LIVERPOOL, AND ALL INTERMEDIATE POINTS, ON SATURDAY, JUNE 28th. AND $1 PER WEEK.

Some on the boulevard and business street will be sold at prices a little higher, but in no instance at figures as high as the advance which must be made thirty days after date.

Ten per cent discount will be allowed for cash when full amount is paid within sixty day from date of purchase, and in the event of sickness or loss of employment no interest will be charged on deferred payments. Should the death of the purchaser occur, his or her heirs will receive free deed or title to lot without requirement of any further payment, if purchaser has paid one-fourth of purchase price.

It might be well to remember that the lots on the boulevard and many of the streets run from 50 x 110 to 55 x 125 and 50 x 150.

The National Steel Company will employ about 2,000 men in the billet and rod mills; the Pope Tinplate Works will start with 800 men, and increase to double this number in the next fourteen months; the La Belle Steel Works employ 2,100 men at present at their new open hearth furnaces and at the new tube mills. When completed this industry alone will give employment to 6,000 men.

It is estimated that the army of workmen in Steubenville and vicinity will be increased to 15,000 and that in less than ten years there will be a compact commercial metropolis of more than 50,000 souls, built up solidly with no vacant land intervening.

La Belle View Will Have Every Modern City Improvement.

LA BELLE VIEW is a part of Steubenville lying in the Third and Fifth wards on a beautiful tableland just above the Panhandle passenger depot. It will inherit every up-to-date convenience that belongs to a progressive municipality whose population is now 15,000 and growing at the rate of 42 per cent. The Steubenville City Councils have appointed a committee to confer with the owners of La Belle View property for the purpose of accepting a magnificent park fronting a great distance along the Boulevard. This park will be improved with gushing springs of pure water, pleasure resorts, fine grounds, lakes, etc.

Arrangements have been made to pave a portion of the Boulevard and the business street. Other extensive city improvements will follow.

There will be city water, natural gas and electric light.

GUESTS OF KING AND QUEEN.

Chamberlains Entertain—Menelik's Representative and Suite Attracted Much Attention—Coronation Rehearsed Yesterday.

London, June 24.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra gave a grand dinner party last night at Buckingham palace to 70 royal personages, who practically represented the sovereigns of all the monarchies of the world.

The list of their majesties' guests was headed by the Czaritch of Russia, who arrived in London last evening, and included an imposing array of princes and princesses and all the members of the British royal family.

Buckingham palace was beautifully decorated and the bands of the Grenadier and the Coldstream guards discoursed throughout the evening. The dinner was followed by a brilliant reception, which was attended by the members of the suites of all the foreign potentates now in London.

The Chamberlains Entertained.

Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, and Mrs. Chamberlain (who was Miss Mary Endicott, of Massachusetts) received the colonial premiers and other distinguished visitors from Great Britain's colonies at their London residence last evening.

A full and strictly private rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies to be held in Westminster abbey took place there yesterday afternoon, in which everybody, with the exception of the royal personages and the participants in the musical and religious features of the functions, rehearsed their respective duties. The archbishop of Canterbury, the Rev. Frederick Temple, and the lord chancellor, the Earl of Halsbury, were among those who were drilled in their parts under the superintendency of the Duke of Norfolk, the earl marshal.

After it was over the musical service for the coronation was rehearsed in full in the church house adjoining the abbey.

Abyssinian Attracts Attention.
None of the special envoys who arrived here yesterday, though they included princes of the greatest European dynasties, aroused as much interest as did Ras Makonnen, the Abyssinian general and special representative of King Menelik. In picturesque and barbarian splendor the Ethiopian commander and his suite paled even the brilliancy of the Oriental princes whom London has become accustomed to during the past week. Makonnen, who has black curly hair and a beard, wore a cloak of white silk, pantaloons, a shoulder cape of heavy white satin, bordered with gold, and a broad brimmed felt hat. Three native chiefs who accompany him were scarcely less gorgeous in their apparel, while the African priest, carrying a heavy silver crozier, was the general's constant companion. Ras Makonnen's native followers carried guns and spears.

Prince Henry Arrived.
Among the other arrivals yesterday were Prince Henry of Prussia, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria, the prince of the Asturias, Crown Prince Gustaf of Sweden and Norway, Admiral Gervais, head of the French mission, and Mgr. Merry Del Val, the papal envoy.

The scenes in the streets yesterday were largely a repetition of those of Sunday. During most of the day they were even more crowded, many of the omnibus lines deserting the main thoroughfares and congested districts and running through back streets.

The decorations were nearing completion yesterday, and the weather, after weeks of cold and rain, became stifling hot.

To Sing Wherever They Arc.

Among the national observances on coronation day which have received the approval of the king is the suggestion, evidently traceable to the simultaneous stoppage of all trains, etc., in the United States for five minutes at 2 p. m. on the day of the late President McKinley's funeral, that at 5 o'clock on Thursday evening every British subject in the United Kingdom and the colonies, whether in the street, at home, in a theater, in church or elsewhere, shall uncover and join in singing "God Save the King." The promoters hope that wherever Britons are assembled in America they will join in singing the national anthem.

For Less Than $800 Work Has Been Done That Formerly Cost Twice as Much.

A correspondent writing from Hanover township on the new road law says:

"Our roads are supposed to be in politics; they are talked of and scrutinized as never before. Men's capacities as trustee, roadmaster or teamsters are now estimated by the condition of our highways.

"Our trustees failed to find outside of their own number enough such help as they deemed efficient to work the roads, and as a consequence they have done a full share themselves, receiving liberal pay. Such a condition will be criticized, no matter how unavoidable it may be.

"The writer has had the privilege of reviewing a considerable portion of the work together with the expenditures for nearly all that is required at this time, to make the highways in proper shape.

"Last week the trustees had expended $737, and they estimated unfinished work would require not over $50 more. It appears that less than $800 has served the township just as well as heretofore nearly double the amount applied miscellaneous by the supervisors. Some extra work has been done in the way of moving stone that have been allowed to accumulate on banks at roadsides, where they were constantly liable to get on the road.

"In several instances byways that never had been worked with a big scraper were neatly rounded up with good ditches on either side; this is the main point of superiority the new system has in the character of the work done.

"If we had some way of reaching the two-day men and still hold to a competent roadmaster who employed teams and men on a business basis, a few years would greatly improve our highways.

"There has been more public funds wasted by misdirected energies through ignorance of supervisors and by shirking prompted by the notion that no one need do his best on public work, than any other way in our farm districts.

TAFT REPORTS TO ROOT

Almost Daily—Latter Refuses to Discuss Matter, at Present.

Washington, June 24.—Secretary Root declines to discuss the details of Governor Taft's negotiations at Rome until they are complete. They are proceeding steadily and in the usual course, each side seeking to make the best possible bargain, with the result that there have been several exchanges since the original proposition of Governor Taft touching the friars' lands. They are reported by the governor to Secretary Root by cable almost daily, with full explanatory comments by himself and suggestions to govern the framing of counter-proposals.

The last report from him came to Washington Sunday night in the shape of a copy of the proposal of the committee of cardinals, and the answer to this was dispatched yesterday afternoon. It is said at the war department that while there naturally have been some wide differences between the negotiators, there has been no such thing as an ultimatum or serious hitch, and there is no reason to doubt that a satisfactory agreement will be reached.

STIR IN MINING CIRCLES

A RICH VEIN THAT WAS LOST HAS BEEN FOUND.

Yields 72 Ounces to the Ton—Good News to Holders of Ceramic City Mine Stock.

Special to The News, Denver, Col.

Ouray, Colo., June 12.—There is considerable stir in mining circles here over the showing being made in the west side gold belt, immediately adjoining Ouray. Gold has been discovered in this section in quantities, that may prove with further development the equal of anything in the San Juan. Mr. W. A. Hart, of the Ceramic Mining company has been successful in his exploration work, to the extent of finding the lost vein which carried the high gold values in the Stenographer, during the hey-day of its activity. Assays of ore taken from this vein run seventy-two ounces to the ton.

The Stenographer originally belonged to Alexander & Pierson, who bonded the property to London parties. The London company operated the mine for some time, but the course pursued led them away from the vein carrying the rich values, being misled into following a large cross vein which runs through the property in a northerly direction. Becoming discouraged in their efforts to strike something rich the company abandoned the property and allowed their claim thereon to lapse.

A short time ago, Mr. Hart, who is a man of wide experience in the mining industry, examined the property, and to him the mistake made by the London company became at once apparent. He succeeded in interesting a number of capitalists in the mine and organized a company. The company acquired title to the property and also to a number of other claims, by purchase and location, immediately adjacent to the Stenographer, and active work will soon be in progress on the group. Men are at work repairing the old trail and building new ones, preparing to forward supplies and putting on a large force. New boarding and ore houses are being built and work on the erection of a twenty stamp mill will soon be begun.

Work is progressing steadily on the Box canon, and the tunnel is being driven toward the contact vein that was opened up in the Merchants properties on the west. It is expected that the vein will be cut within another fifty feet. There is little doubt that good bodies of ore will be found in the contact. A tunnel lower down on the mountain extended into this vein originally and from this tunnel shipping ore was taken out at a much greater distance from the contact than fifty feet, but the mouth of the tunnel was too near the general level to furnish a sufficient dumping ground, hence the new tunnel now being driven.

A New Era in Traveling Trunks.
A Halt Called on Baggage Smashers.

Peremptory orders were recently issued by various railroad officials to porters and baggage masters on their respective lines forbidding the playing of ping-pong with trunks and satchels confidently committed to their care by a long suffering public. Under this new order of things there will naturally be a bigger demand for fine trunks than ever. Tourists need no longer grudge the payment of a fair price for a fine product, now that its life is thus insured. We invite you to inspect a new line of trunks received this week. Think they will interest you.

the most prominent men identified with the new company. The statement that the D. E. McNicol Pottery company is identified with the new concern is somewhat premature. A member of the firm when seen this morning gave out the following statement: "While we have been asked to give a price on our pottery in this city, we have refrained from doing so up to the present time. So far we have nothing to do with the company, but what will be done in the future is a matter that cannot be spoken of just now."

It was learned from other sources that up to the present time the Harker company is not identified with the new concern. While overtures are said to have been made by the Laughlin combination for the Harkers to enter the deal, nothing has been done so far. The intimation is that the Harker company was approached in the same manner that the McNicol Co. was, asked for a price on its plant, and nothing more.

No statement could be secured from representatives of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company today, as Col. John N. Taylor and Joseph G. Lee were in Pittsburgh attending to some other important matters. They are expected to return to the city this evening.

Neither could a statement concerning the reported combination be secured from those connected with the Laughlin company, for when a reporter talked to Secretary W. E. Wells he had nothing to say. Others connected with this company were at Pittsburgh during the day.

This is the second time an attempt has been made to form a combination by L. I. Aarons, president of the Laughlin company. Several years ago Mr. Aarons attempted to form a combine among the local potteries by offering owners of such plants one-third in stock, one-third in bonds and the other third in cash. A number of manufacturers were approached on the subject at the time, but nothing ever came of the deal. The project was dropped rather suddenly, and while it met with the favor of some, opposition was met on other sides.

Now that the formation of such a deal is assured, nothing more will be heard of the proposition presented by Messrs. Trainer and Irwin of Chicago. These gentlemen sent the same proposition to each and every manufacturer in the city, but little if any faith was pinned to the details of the form of arrangement.

From an indirect source it was learned this morning that the plan of formation of this combination is almost the same as that upon which the East Liverpool Potteries company was formed. This plan was originated by a well known resident of this city, who is indirectly identified with the pottery industry. It was nothing more or less than the forming of a working arrangement among potteries of the same class, all through the city. When this is done a working arrangement can be secured with other combinations. It may be a hard matter to deal with probably 50 manufacturers, but when only a few persons are to be interviewed the matter of forming a combination is much easier. Such is the argument put up by a well known manufacturer. Place all potteries on an equal footing, and the matter of forming a pottery combine will be easier work.

Additional facts concerning this new deal are expected upon the return from Pittsburgh of the East Liverpool parties interested.

FOUR OTHER FACTORIES ARE ALSO MENTIONED

And It Is Predicted That At Least a Dozen More Will Enter the New Company.

CHARTERED IN NEW JERSEY WITH A NOMINAL CAPITAL.

"A combination of six large pottery companies, including the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, the largest in the world, and the Homer Laughlin China company, perhaps the most famous in the west, has just been effected through the efforts of Louis I. Aarons, the master, who is president of the latter company, and has offices in the Second National bank building, Pittsburg," says the Dispatch. "The aggregate value of the plants, at a very conservative estimate, is $5,000,000, and it is predicted that before long 12 more potteries will be in the combine."

"The other charter members of the combine are the Harker Pottery company, the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, the Taylor, Lee & Smith company and the Edwin M. Knowles China company. The latter two have their plants at Chester, W. Va., just across the river from East Liverpool, where the other four companies are located. Together they employ about 7,000 persons."

"The consolidation has been in process of formation for six months or more. The papers were finally exchanged yesterday after the receipt of the charter from Trenton, N. J., on Friday afternoon. The capitalization is fixed at the nominal figure of $250,000."

"The title of the new corporation was not announced last night, but the name of the trust which died a boring two years ago, the American Pottery company, will probably be adopted. The indications are that Col. John N. Taylor, president of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, will be president, and that Mr. Aarons, who is president of the Homer Laughlin China company, will be first vice president."

"The new company is to be the nucleus for a large combination, to include all the principal plants in the west. The total value of those in the district about East Liverpool is about $15,000,000, while $3,000,000 would represent the money invested in the others west of the Alleghenies. There is little probability of the great interests in the eastern district, about Trenton, N. J., being included in the new deal."

"The present is the third attempt that has been made to combine the earthenware plants of the country. The first was in 1898, when John R. Dos Passos, of New York, an agent of J. Pierpont Morgan, secured options on every plant of any importance in the country except two. The transfers were made January 1, 1899, and the potters actually ran under the name of the new combination for nearly two months. The greed of the promoting syndicate, however, killed the deal. The underwriters in New York insisted on the increasing of the capitalization to $28,000,000 and retaining double the amount of stock as commission that had first been proposed. The potters withdrew, losing thousands of dollars in the venture."

The story published in Pittsburg this morning is one that has been known to many people in this city since the last of April. However, at no time was the matter in shape to be given to the public until the last few days when one of the largest manufacturers interested in the deal made the statement to a News Review reporter that matters were being closed and a fortnight would see the formation of the new combination. It has also been stated that had it not been

for the serious illness of Marcus Aarons, of the Laughlin company, the deal would have been consummated several weeks ago, but under the circumstances definite action was deferred for some time. Conferences have been held in this city and also in Pittsburg concerning the matter, but not until the last few weeks was it in such shape that the deal was considered likely to be completed."

A telegram from S. K. Dickson, secretary of state, at Trenton, N. J., to the News Review yesterday afternoon stated no charter for the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles or the Laughlin company was on file.

It is stated upon authority that is considered most reliable that the new combination will be operated under a name that will represent the name of

ACTION TAKEN

The Commission Met Today and Made Recommendations to Council.

The meeting of the sewer commission scheduled for last evening did not materialize, but was held today.

Action on a report submitted by Health Officer Burgess was to have been taken by the commissioner and it was considered urgent that something be done in the matter. At the meeting of the board of health last week Mr. Burgess was notified to present the property owners along certain designated thoroughfares with a petition for their signatures, which would signify their wish for sewers. In pursuance of this order Mr. Burgess visited the owners along Thompson avenue, Ravine street and Vine street and reports that every owner signed the petition. The petitions were acted upon by the commission today and sewers recommended.

Before council can take any action in the matter by law it is required that the sewer commission recommend that the work be done.

Interceded With the Mayor and Secured Release of an Arrested Brother.

There was quite a scene on Sixth street early last evening when George Starhill was placed under arrest by Officer McDermott for being drunk and using profane language. He resisted the officer and made the air blue with profane oaths, but was yanked to central station notwithstanding.

A sister of the man followed him to jail and plead with the mayor for her brother's release, promising to take him home and keep him there until sober. His honor did as requested.

Declined the Appointment.

George W. McCook, Steubenville, has declined the appointment as member of the commission to assist in the celebration of the Ohio centennial at Chillicothe, tendered him by Governor Nash, and Robert W. Manley, of Chillicothe, a descendant of one of the early governors of Ohio, has been appointed in his stead. The position carries with it no salary.

Lost His Way.

A young man, aged about 23 years, performed the remarkable feat of losing his way on the train yesterday, and did not get his bearings until a conductor on the C. & P. kindly laid him over in this city. The depot officials used their good offices and sent the traveler back to Wellsville, where he was able to catch the right train and resume his journey westward.

VIOLENT BLOWS STRUCK

And She Feared For Her Life—The Man Will Be Taken to Lisbon and Required to Give Bond—Divorce Proceedings Probable.

In a pitiable condition, her face showing quite perceptibly the marks of numerous blows and her body badly bruised from her head to her feet, Mrs. Emma Cassidy, of Bank street, appeared in Squire McLane's court yesterday and asked that her husband, Thomas F. Cassidy, be arrested and dealt with by the law. She feared for her life.

The squire gave Constable Powell orders to arrest the man. He was later arraigned and the testimony offered permitted the justice to have him placed in the city jail with orders that he be taken to Lisbon tomorrow to answer to probate court.

It is said that Cassidy is a periodical drinker and that when he gets on a spree takes delight in abusing his wife. It is stated, he went home drunk yesterday and gave his wife a beating too horrible to describe. Her screams, it is said were heard for a block away.

Mrs. Cassidy stated that she did not want him tried for assault and battery but would rather that he be placed under a peace bond, which she knows he will break, and then he will be sent to the workhouse. While he is incarcerated there she announces that she will begin proceedings for divorce.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Daughters of Liberty is being held in the J. O. U. A. M. hall over the postoffice. About 70 delegates from different parts of the state have arrived in the city, the great majority of them coming yesterday, and it is predicted that the meeting will be one of the most successful ever held.

At the reception last evening fully 150 people were present and they all in one accord pronounced the entertainment very fine and highly enjoyable. The hall was prettily decorated with the national emblem, giving the spacious room an air most appropriate to the occasion.

John W. Sellers as master of ceremonies called the meeting to order and the following pleasing program was carried out: Singing of "America" by the audience; address of welcome, Florence M. Sellers, Jr., ex-state counselor; response, Adeline P. Lockwood, state counselor, of Bellaire; recitation, Leroy Orr; vocal solo, Miss Alice Devoni; recitation, Miss Heakin; vocal solo, Miss Eleanor Orr; recitation, Prof. S. M. STILL OTHERS LIKELY TO DIE

Wreck at Mingo Junction More Serious in Its Results Than First Reported.

AMONG THE BADLY HURT

Are Men Who Make Their Homes in Wellsville—The Condition of Two Is Considered Most Precarious.

The wreck at Mingo Junction yesterday morning which resulted in the almost instant death of two brakemen and the maiming of almost a dozen other railroad men is even worse than the early account published in this paper. One or two more victims of the accident stand a poor show of recovery.

William Hanniford, conductor on train No. 85, will probably die. He is at the Gill hospital in Steubenville.

In the account of the wreck given yesterday it was stated that Hanniford was a resident of Bellaire. He formerly lived there but of late has been a resident of Cleveland. For a few weeks he has been running between Cleveland and Wellsville as conductor. When here roomed on Commerce street. Mrs. Hanniford was here a short time three weeks ago and returned to Cleveland. Hanniford was transferred again to the river division Saturday evening and was on his first run to Bellaire. He intended to move his home to Wellsville where he is so well known.

Mrs. Hanniford arrived in the city from Cleveland on her way to the bedside of her husband yesterday. He was crushed internally and is conscious only a few minutes at a time. The doctors do not expect his recovery.

Elmer Cooper, engineer of the fated pony No. 404, was carried from the train to his home on Commerce street in Wellsville. A foot and arm are mashed. Cooper is badly hurt, injured internally and looks like a corpse.

Engineer Ed Duty, of Wellsville, who was acting as pilot on train 85, is at the Gill hospital and very feeble. His condition does not warrant his removal home. He was at first reported killed, then only to have had a hand broken, but is hurt internally and is in a critical state.

Portions of wrecked engines, the

mogul No. 87 and the pony No. 404, have been brought to the Wellsville shops.

Two brakemen who were killed were momentarily in the utmost agony, frightfully scalded and burned, but their injuries were so terrible and vital that fortunately death speedily ended their sufferings.

An official investigation cannot be properly made of the wreck until the injured survivors are able to talk.

The blame seems to rest with the pony crew, but they were only partially responsible. Train No. 87, supposed to run from Conway, started from Wellsville and the pony crew presumed that it had been annulled, as it was not supposed to start from Wellsville. Crews are supposed to "make time," and are "called down" if they do not come up to the standard. With so many trains running on the C. & P. desperate chances are frequently run by conductors and engineers who wish to make a good record.

KILLED ON RAILROAD

He Was Walking the Track and His Widow Demands $10,000.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Susan A. Chestnut administratrix of the estate of William Chestnut, of Franklin Square, has entered suit against the Erie railroad company for $10,000 damages. On the evening of June 15, 1901, Mr. Chestnut was walking along the railroad track near Franklin Square and was hit by a train and killed.

Mrs. Chestnut claims in her petition that residents of Franklin Square were in the habit of walking on the track between Franklin Square and Leetonia; that the engineer in charge of the train that killed Mr. Chestnut did not slow down when he saw him on the track, and that he did not exercise due care, as he knew Mr. Chestnut was deaf.

A FARM HAND'S BILL

It Amounts to $3,200 for Work and Rent of Land.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—Charles Matthews, of Franklin township, has entered suit against C. B. Connell, as administrator of the estate of Mary J. Matthews, deceased, for $3,200.

The plaintiff's claim is for work in managing the farm of the deceased and for the use and occupation by her for five years of plaintiff's farm in Hanover township.

WALKED OUT OF THE JAIL

William Jones, alias Thomas Connelly, the pickpocket, who was arrested last week at Chester for pocket picking and taken to New Cumberland, colly effected his escape from the jail this morning at 8 o'clock, walking out while Guards Basil West and Stanton Milby were eating breakfast, they having left the prisoner but a moment before.

Connelly performed the trick very smoothly, the door of the jail having been left unlocked, and the guards being in close proximity. They failed to observe Connelly, and he made his exit good.

The discovery of his absence was made shortly afterward and a thorough search was at once instituted, but his whereabouts have not as yet been discovered, or any possible clue leading to them.

Connelly has been identified by Grant S. Ward, Pennsylvania company inspector of police, as William Jones, for whom the authorities have been looking for the past seven years. Ward visited the New Cumberland jail, and accosted Jones with "Hello Bill." Jones said he did not know him. Ward asked him to hold up his right hand. He complied, showing that there was a scar on it, and also his left hand, there being a scar on his thumb. He had other marks on his hands and body by which he was easily identified.

The prisoner received a special delivery letter from Rochester, Pa., and it was at once intercepted by Sheriff Allison, who still has possession of it.

Jones robbed John Maier, of Homestead, Pa., of a pocketbook at Chester. It contained a railway ticket and 11 cents, together with some papers. He failed to secure a large roll of bills which Maier had secreted in another pocket. It is thought he is gone for good.

Center Township Man Enters Suit Against His Father's Heirs.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—John E. E. Carlisle, of Center township, has entered suit against Thos. B. Carlisle and other heirs of Jonas Carlisle. B. Carlisle.

His father died in January, 1900, and the plaintiff claims that he has paid off the note and asks that the heirs give him a deed for the property.

EAST END

LIGHT WON'T SHINE

Councilmanic Committee Sees No Necessity for One That Was Requested.

At a recent meeting of council Dr. Marshall, of the East End, asked that a small light be placed at the corner of Erie street and Dewey avenue. The matter was referred to the light committee, and last evening the members of the committee went to the East End and looked at the location where the light was requested. It is predicted that no light will be placed there for several months. There is not a house in the immediate vicinity and at present only the foundation of the parsonage of the Erie street M. E. church is at the corner.

It will be months before the parsonage is completed, and much longer before the church is ready for occupancy. When there is sufficient cause for a light to be placed in that locality the committee of council will act favorably on the matter, but not before. So said a member of the committee last evening after he had visited the East End.

STABLE LOCK BROKEN

And a Horse Stolen—Property of Mrs. Ida Clark, East End.

Horse thieves have again invaded the East End and last evening a valuable working horse was stolen from a stable in an alley south of St. George street. It was owned by Mrs. Ida Clark, who keeps a grocery on Mulberry street, and was valued at $100. This morning there was no clue to the thieves, although officers were working on the case, and it was expected that by evening a clue would be obtained.

The horse was placed in its stable as usual in the evening and the door securely locked, but in gaining an entrance to the building the thieves broke the lock. Those living in the vicinity heard no particular noise during the night.

It is believed the theft was committed by the same persons who stole Larkins & Ferguson's horse from the Waggle farm recently.

An Enjoyable Social.

The social given last evening at the residence of Rev. N. M. Crowe, on Pennsylvania avenue, was one of the most pleasant events of the season. It was intended that the pastor should entertain the congregation, but more than this occurred, for the members of the church brought refreshments with them, including 10 gallons of ice cream. It was proposed to make merry on the lawn surrounding the house, but the weather was too chilly for this and a retreat was made to the par-

Little credence is given the following which appeared in a Wheeling paper yesterday. At police headquarters nothing is known of the alleged missing girl:

"A pretty 15-year-old girl is missing from East Liverpool, and it is alleged she has been led astray by a Wheeling traveling man. She disappeared from her home last Thursday. She went to Warrenton to participate in a concert, being somewhat of an elocutionist, but did not return home, and her parents became alarmed and started an investigation. She was traced to Warrenton, where she was in the company of a Wheeling traveling man in the employ of a wholesale grocery house. Sunday two men arrived at Martin's Ferry in search of the girl. Two valises recognized as hers were discovered, one at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh station, and the other at the Bellevue hotel. The men refused to divulge the girl's name, or that of the traveling man in whose company she is alleged to have been."

Attempt to Use It and Got Badly Punished as a Result.

Passengers to this city on the late Pittsburg train Saturday evening witnessed a fight that came near being attended by serious results. A passenger sat down on the arm of a seat which was occupied by an Italian, who with other of his countrymen were coming to this city. The Italian requested the man to get up, but no attention was paid. Finally the men back of the Italian saw several queer moves by the foreigner, and found that he had a large knife which he was about to run into the hip of the man on the arm of his seat.

That man punished the Italian unmercifully. The American got a bad cut during the fight.

An East Liverpool Girl Was Sent After Being Released to See Her Father.

Attila, a young daughter of Henry Lowry, was taken before Judge Boone at Lisbon, about two years ago, charged with theft. She was taken to Fairmount Home, where she remained until about a month ago, when she returned to her home by special permission to see her father who, it was claimed, was lying at the point of death. He did not die, but announced his intention to keep the child with him if possible.

Judge Boone was notified of this intention through Supt. Southworth who promptly instructed Sheriff Leonard to go to East Liverpool and secure the child and return it to the Home.

GORED BY A BULL

ENRAGED ANIMAL FIERCELY ATTACKS A YOUNG MAN.

Elmer Haynes Knocked Down and Severely Injured near Congo.

Elmer Haynes, aged 21, was gored by a bull about two miles from Congo yesterday afternoon. He works for Frank Swearingen. The animal has a vicious disposition and is let into the field only at intervals. Many people were traversing the country Sunday afternoon and Mr. Swearingen told Haynes to put the bull in the stable.

When Haynes approached the beast it charged on him. The man broke a rotten club over the bull's head but was knocked down and being savagely attacked when George Farrell ran to his rescue. Haynes was severely bruised and wounded about the chest. His condition is not serious.

Chronic Diarrhoea.

This disease is generally regarded as incurable, mainly for the reason that the remedies usually employed are ineffectual. That it can be cured, however, has been fully proven in many cases. The following tells of one of them: Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburgh, Ga., says: "I had been suffering from chronic diarrhoea for seven years. Last year I began taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it has entirely cured me. I had spent lots of money for doctors' medicine in the run of the seven years. If it had not been for this remedy I would have been dead now, and I feel that I can never say too much in its favor or recommend it too highly." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

A HARD STRUGGLE

Many an East Liverpool Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary depression. Daily existence is one of struggle.

No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. East Liverpool people endorse this claim.

Mr. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Bradshaw avenue, says: "During three years I had attacks of dull, steady aching in the back. When stooping or sitting for some time it would change to a quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long, and I often had headaches, dizziness, and in the mornings great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at the W. & W. pharmacy, to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I had ever tried."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, States.

Commenting on the fact that statis
 tics of university graduating classes
 show probably 90 per cent to be Re
 publicans in politics, the New York Tribune asks: "What is to be the fu ture of the Democratic party? A fort tuitous swarm of jarring atoms, with
 few educated leaders who know things
 and can look ahead, and with few edu
 cated followers that can talk well, or
 write well, or have the knack of getting
 together in political battles? Aimless,
 confused and distracted, they are ask
 ing in forlorn accents 'where they are
 at' and are stumbling into the ditch of
 defeat even before the lines of battle
 are fairly set against each other." Young men who propose to take a part in politics can see no future in a party that is not only looking backward, but going backward.

Now a medical man arises to state
 that salt will cure pneumonia. A few years ago some of his brethren were
 announcing that it would raise the
 dead, but as no graveyards have been
 depopulated through its agency, the
 world is still skeptical, and likely to re ceive the announcement of the new discovery with many grains of allow ance.

It is asserted that nearly 18,000
 Americans found homes in the Do
 minion of Canada last year, not count
 ing Klondike gold seekers and those
 whose migration was forced by em blemment charges. At this rate of progress, annexation sentiment ought
 to increase at a rapid rate.

The doctors report that the trouble
 with Hobson is "compound hypermet
 ropic astigmatism, retinal hyperemia
 and trachoma." This, compounded
 with his habit of promiscuous oscula
 tion, certainly makes his condition
 grave.

In Denmark the people continue to
 be excited over the proposition to sell
 the Danish West Indies to the United States. If they would warrant the is lands volcano-proof, Uncle Sam might
 evince more interest.

If Bryan can get that fusion nomina
 tion for governor of Nebraska he had better clinch it. It begins to look as if it were the only political honor likely
 to be offered to him.

The new King of Saxony is 70 years
 old. There seems to be one place left

where the boys aren't getting all the
 good jobs.

A man was killed in Tennessee the other day for traducing the army in the Philippines. The "aunties"
 should take warning.

Gov. Odell, of New York, predicts
 that his state will again go Republican
 next fall. He is undoubtedly a true
 prophet.

The 7-year locusts, whose visit was predicted, have failed to arrive. No
 body has yet expressed any regret.

A June snowstorm, like many other things that are marvelous, is an Ohio
 product.

There won't be any Democratic har mony if William J. Bryan can pre vent it.

Grover Cleveland, in being abused by Bryan, is again in distinguished com
 pany.

England's week of joy bids fair to
 be converted into one of sorrow.

Lisbon thirst may still be gratified.

M. J. Timlin.
 News of the death of M. J. Timlin,
 who was seriously injured in Athens
 county last Saturday, the facts of
 which were given in this paper last
 yesterday afternoon. While Mr. Tim
 lin's injuries were considered serious,
 it was the belief of his many friends
 in and about this city that he would ultimately recover. Sunday, however,
 tated near the ankle, and the injuries
 to his back were so great that his re covery was at last found to be impos
 sible.

Mr. Timlin is well known in this city. Besides being president of the Belmont Oil and Gas Co., of this city,
 he was interested with other East
 Liverpool business men in various en
 terprises. His last visit to this city
 was about two weeks ago, when he was
 the guest of Charles A. Smith. Mr.
 Timlin resided with his wife and three children, at Moundsville, and was
 about 43 years old. Several years ago
 he was executor of a large estate near
 Smith's Ferry. He had been identi fied with the oil and gas business all
 his life.

Robert Alexander.
 Robert Alexander, aged about 35, of Wellsville, died in Texas last night,
 from consumption. He left last au
 tumn on account of failing health, hop
 ing to receive benefit from the arid at mosphere of the southwest. A telegram received this morning announced his death. Mr. Alexander lost a leg by be ing run over by the cars when a child,
 but when he grew up became a tele
 graph operator and was in the employ
 of the C. & P. for several years. He was a son of Mrs. Hugh Alexander, of
 John Alexander; Mrs. O. C. Wells,
 Pittsburg; Mrs. W. D. Moore and Mrs.
 Mary Eckfeld, Wellsville. Owing to
 his amiable disposition he had many friends, especially among the railroad
 men. The remains will be brought to Wellsville for burial.

P. P. Wilbur, a Zanesville potter,
 is trying to organize a company to build a pottery at Dresden, O. His proposition is for the citizens to or ganize a company with a capital stock
 of $20,000 and employ him at a salary
 of $100 per month and manufacture
 the jug on a royalty, or buy the pat
 ent at $5,000. Mr. Wilbur and a bro ther operated a small plant at Saltillo
 about two years ago, but a fire de stroyed their plant and crippled them
 financially. Since then Wilbur has been working in other potteries.

From the information that was re
 ceived from a number of manufactur
 ers today, many of the potteries will
 suspend operations, next Saturday for
 a two weeks' term, while others will
 not stop until Thursday evening, July
 3. On this date the Smith-McNicol
 is expected to stop for a short vaca tion. The plants operated by the Laughlin company will close Saturday
 for two weeks. Other plants will be stopped as conditions require, but it
 is thought the rest will not last more
 than two weeks in any case.

Everything is in readiness to com
 mence work at the plant of the East
 Liverpool Sagger company on Second street. There is one thing that is delaying the start, and that is the
 non-arrival of a large pulley that is
 to be placed on the shaft that operates
 the pans and the pug mills. It is thought that operations will be started
 within a week, though it was expected
 to start the plant this week.

Warehousemen's local No. 48 at a meeting last evening in Knights of Columbus hall elected officers for the
 new term as follows: President,
 Frederick Fitzgerald; vice president,
 Harry VanFossen; recording secre
 tary, Lawrence White; financial sec
 retary, Harry Smith; treasurer, T. O.
 Terrence; one per cent secretary,
 Charles Pollock.

A party of operatives employed at
 the Union are planning a trip to the northern part of the state, where they
 will remain camp for two weeks, or
 during the shut down. Among those who will make the trip are Elijah
 Eardley, William Messer, Robert
 Steeley, John DeBee, Basil Rowe, El
 mer and Walter Smith, Edward Cas
 sidy, Ed Provo and William Gilchrist.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Globe
 were unable to work yesterday. Last week the crown of a kiln fell in just
 as it was being fired, but luckily no
 ware was damaged, and no person was injured. The necessary repairs are now being made, and the kilnmen will

start to work within a short time.

Kilndrawers' local failed to elect
 officers at a meeting held last Satur
 day night, and will elect next Satur
 day. A committee was appointed at
 the last session to audit the books,
 and make a report at the next meet
 ing. The new officers will take their
 seat the first meeting night in July.

The work of repainting the exterior
 of the Sevres pottery on Second street
 has about been completed. The im provement adds much to the appear ance of the plant, as nothing of the
 kind had been done to the outer walls
 of the building for several years.

Dippers' local No. 16, and printers'
 and transferers' local No. 32, met in
 their respective halls last evening but
 nothing out of the ordinary business
 was transacted.

Many improvements are being made
 at the old Lacy pottery at Trenton.
 New boilers are about to be installed,
 and it is said that an additional kiln
 is also to be built.

William Maley, who has been work ing a plate jigger at the Diamond for many months, has resigned, and is
 now located at Canonsburg, Pa.

James Stewart, a glost kilnman at
 the Union, who has been very ill for
 the past 14 weeks, has returned to his
 bench, starting work yesterday.

The N. U. Walker sewer pipe works
 at Walker, belonging to the combine,
 are being extensively repaired, and
 new machinery is being placed.

The American China company, of Toronto, will shut down in a few days
 until after the Fourth, to allow em
 ployes an outing and visit.

Newt, Logan, of East Liverpool, as
 accepted a position in the decorating
 department at the American China
 company plant, Toronto.

John Denning, who has been work
 ing as a glost kilnman at the Union
 for several months, has resigned his position.

The Patterson foundry has received
 a large order for work from a new
 pottery to be located at Logan, O.

An electric clay drilling machine
 will be put in the clay mine at the Vulcan brick works, Wellsville.

A new toilet set is about to be plac
 ed on the market by the Goodwin
 Pottery company.

George Worcester, a dipper at the Klondike, is laid up with a bad felon
 on his thumb.

The Calumet sewer pipe works, El
 liottsville, are building four large new
 kilns.

The biscuit kilnmen at the Smith
 Phillips plant did not work yesterday.

The Wellsville China company will
 close down Friday for two weeks.

An Enjoyable Picnic.
 The Sunday school of the First Pres
 byterian church held its annual picnic
 yesterday at Rock Springs park. Not
 a very large crowd was present owing
 to the weather. The old pavilion was
 the scene of much merriment when the
 entire company set down to a table
 laden with all kinds of delicacies. Not withstanding the coolness of the
 weather, those present report an un
 usually fine time.

GRAVE CRIME CHARGED

Mrs. William Peddler, of Yellow Creek, Accuses Him of Attacking Her at Night.

Jacob Fickes yesterday was bound over to court in the sum of $500 on a grave charge before Justice Daniel S. McIntosh, of Yellow Creek. A preliminary hearing was given him on complaint of Mrs. Kate Peddler, wife of William Peddler. She is a woman of high standing in the neighborhood, and charges Fickes with having entered her room shortly after midnight Friday morning and attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Peddler was visiting at the residence of John Forbes, near the Oak Ridge church. It is alleged that Fickes forced open a screen door and got into the house. When Mrs. Peddler awoke Fickes was in her room and the plucky woman struggled with him, succeeding in putting him out of the house. The other members of the household were aroused and a complaint was sworn out before Justice McIntosh.

Fickes was arrested by Constable John Dorman. The prisoner was unable to furnish bond and has been taken to the county jail at Lisbon. He is said to be partially lacking mentally. If Mrs. Peddler's story is true—and there is no reason for doubting her integrity—the assault was vicious, and swift punishment will doubtless be meted out to her assailant.

A STORE ROBBED

Chewing Gum, Tobacco and Cigars Taken From Harry Hale's Place.

At the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets last night some marauder helped himself to $25 worth of cigars, tobacco and chewing gum. Harry Hale's place of business was entered by the large transom over the broad front door.

The removal of a quart of ice cream from the refrigerator showed that the man of easy ways tranquil in his method, was epicurean in taste and took his time. All the cash had been removed from the place so that no money was obtained. A regular night patrolman is assigned to that district, but the entry of the premises was not discovered until the proprietor opened his store in the morning.

A group of boys were found during the forenoon on the hillside with a lot of chewing gum but Hale could not assert positively that it was his. The boys were taken to the county jail and pumped, but refused to give any information. They were released.

During the night it was reported by a passer-by that some one was inside the store room of J. H. Aten and with lanterns and pistols the night police made a detour of the premises from cellar to garret but found it was a false alarm.

Took His Overcoat Along.

Prof. J. L. McDonald, superintendent of the Wellsville schools, went to Put-in-Bay yesterday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio State Teachers' association. When the committee decided on the place for holding the session they thought that the last of June would be very hot and that a cool spot on the bay should be selected. Prof. McDonald had his overcoat with him.

Board of Education Meeting.

At a meeting of the board of education last evening the usual bills were ordered paid and the building committee was instructed to obtain estimates on the repair on the heating apparatus of the Central school building which is in bad shape and will cost considerable money. VENDERS OF RIKK WERE ARRESTED

E. S. GOOD AND ROBERT BURLOCK ARE THE ACCUSED.

The Hancock Grand Jury Has Indicted Them for Selling Intoxicants.

E. S. Good and Robert Burlock, proprietors of places in Chester wherein are sold a drink known as "rikk," were arrested yesterday by Sheriff Allison, on an indictment returned by the Hancock county court for selling intoxicating liquors.

The officers took Good and Burlock to New Cumberland in the afternoon where by the payment of $200 cash they were allowed to return to Chester to appear Thursday for a preliminary hearing. At that time their bail will be fixed, and a time set for their trial in court, the present grand jury having finished its labors yesterday and adjourned.

Mr. Good reopened his place this morning and continues to do business. He claims the officers found nothing about his premises to indicate a so-called "speak-easy." The Baltimore Brewing company from whom Good obtains his stock, has notified him that they will assist him in the defense of his case. Good has been indicted a number of times by the Hancock authorities.

GRAND JURY RETURNS

Three Chester Men Indicted for Liquor Selling—Several Bills Ignored.

The grand jury in session at New Cumberland yesterday found the following true bills: E. S. Good, Robert Burlock and Wm. Gledennig, Chester, one each for selling spirituous liquors; Wm. Jones, alias Connelly, larceny from person; Peter Fulmer, felonious assault.

No bills were found against Jos. Fargo, housebreaking, or C. Todd, who shot a man named Huff. No indictment was returned against Obrey Miller, charged with inciting a riot at the Chelsea pottery.

The following were grand jurors from Grant district: T. R. Cunningham, Baker Allison, G. B. Allison, J. C. Calhoun. Attorney Ingram, of Chester, was also present at court.

Dovenor and Hervey Win.

The Republican County Convention held at Wellsburg Saturday afternoon, resulted in an overwhelming victory for Congressman Dovenor, who carried all of the three districts. There were two aspirants for the house of delegates nomination. Henry C. Hervey, who represented the Brooke-Hancock district in the last legislature, and Mayor C. B. Scott, of Bethany. Hervey carried Wellsburg district, giving him four votes, while Scott won in Buffalo and Cross Creek districts, giving him six votes and the nomination. For county superintendent of free schools, C. W. Hogg defeated the present official, Irwin Burge.

Two Women Concerned.

Passengers on the evening cars leaving the park Sunday evening were attracted by the unusual scene of one woman slapping the face of another and giving her a tongue lashing. It is stated that the young lady had been been cavorting around too much with the other lady's husband, until matters reached a crisis.

DON'T MISS THIS SECOND GREAT CALL TO FORTUNE!

GRAND FREE EXCURSION

Saturday, June 28

WE say "Grand Free Excursion to La Belle View Plan of Lots" but in reality it is to the

because the building activity since the Introductory Sale of May 24 has been unparalleled in the history of town building.

463 lots were then sold and even now over 200 of their purchasers are arranging for improvements. Beautiful new residences and business houses are rising up on all sides. Many are completed. The scene is inspiring! The trend of population is going Steubenville-ward, especially La Belle View-ward. Prices have advanced enormously, but during this Second Sale the Company has decided not to raise prices except on fifty very fine Boulevard lots that were not staked or opened at last sale. On these fifty lots the prices have been raised to per cent, but should have been raised 25 per cent, as investors who bought the adjoining Boulevard lots are asking as high as 33 to 50 per cent advance. And this is but the beginning! Even the most conservative investors say there is no doubt in the world that this ratio of increase will be far overshadowed in the wonderful boom which has only started.

If you are one of the thousands the deluge of rain disappointed when the first big excursion was run to the Introductory Sale of La Belle View Lots, don't fail to take advantage of this second opportunity to get in on the ground floor. Be one of the first to board the trains that leave Wheeling, Bellaire, etc., for La Belle View property on Saturday, June 28. Be sure you speak for your free tickets before it is too late. Get them now, before your neighbors have snapped them all up.

TICKETS FREE

The grand free excursion gives you an opportunity to investigate this wonderful section—to see what a marvelous wealth of diversified industry is spreading out even beyond the wildest predictions of five years back—to realize how this great new city will make big money for the shrewd ones who get in now.

BUT BE SURE AND WRITE FOR THESE FREE TICKETS AT ONCE. REMEMBER THAT THE GRAND FREE EXCURSION TRAINS WILL BE RUN FROM WHEELING, EAST LIVERPOOL, AND ALL INTERMEDIATE POINTS, ON SATURDAY, JUNE 28th. TICKETS WILL BE SENT YOU IMMEDIATELY YOUR REQUEST REACHES US. DON'T FORGET THAT IT WILL NOT BE ONLY THE ONES WHO MISSED THE FIRST BIG EXCURSION THAT WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS SECOND ONE—THE BUYERS OF THE FIRST SALE WILL GO AGAIN TO CAPTURE MORE GOLD MINES—SO DON'T GET LEFT ON WHAT IN ALL PROBABILITY WILL BE THE LAST CALL TO THE GREATEST REAL ESTATE PROPOSITION EVER SET FORTH ON THIS PART OF THE EARTH.

When you reach the La Belle View Plan of Lots you will see a mighty building boom going on on all sides of you. The level headed investors of the first sale are getting ready for the tremendous appeal for homes that is now going up from the throats of hundreds and hundreds of the 10,000 additional iron workers, tin plate workers, glass workers, clay workers and coal miners about to invade this fruitful field for employment.

Look at the fact that prices have already advanced beyond all expectations for your evidence of what the future holds for owners of La Belle View Lots.

THE IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIES WILL CALL 10,000 MORE WORKMEN TO EMPLOYMENT.

Among the names of the great organizations which are erecting new works and adding buildings and improvements are the La Belle Steel Co., Pope Tinplate Co., Ohio Valley Clay Co., National Steel Co., American Steel Hoop Co., Ohio Foundry Co., Steubenville Pottery Co., Steubenville Wall Paper Co., Riverside Blast Furnace Co., Acme Glass Works Co., Hartje Bros., Paper Manufacturers, Jefferson Glass Co., Means Foundry and Machine Co., Robinson & Irwin Machine Co., National Marble Co., and many planing mills.

When completed this industry alone will give employment to 6,000 men.

It is estimated that the army of workmen in Steubenville and vicinity will be increased to 15,000 and that in less than ten years there will be a compact commercial metropolis of more than 50,000 souls, built up solidly with no vacant land intervening.

La Belle View Will Have Every Modern City Improvement.

LA BELLE VIEW is a part of Steubenville lying in the Third and Fifth wards on a beautiful tableland just above the Panhandle passenger depot. It will inherit every up-to-date convenience that belongs to a progressive municipality whose population is now 15,000 and growing at the rate of 42 per cent. The Steubenville City Councils have appointed a committee to confer with the owners of La Belle View property for the purpose of accepting a magnificent park fronting a great distance along the Boulevard. This park will be improved with gushing springs of pure water, pleasure resorts, fine grounds, lakes, etc.

Arrangements have been made to pave a portion of the Boulevard and the business street. Other extensive city improvements will follow.

There will be city water, natural gas and electric light.

GUESTS OF KING AND QUEEN.

Chamberlains Entertain—Menelick's Representative and Suite Attracted Much Attention—Coronation Rehearsed Yesterday.

London, June 24.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra gave a grand dinner party last night at Buckingham palace to 70 royal personages, who practically represented the sovereigns of all the monarchies of the world.

The list of their majesties' guests was headed by the Czar of Russia, who arrived in London last evening, and included an imposing array of princes and princesses and all the members of the British royal family.

Buckingham palace was beautifully decorated and the bands of the Grenadier and the Coldstream guards discoursed throughout the evening. The dinner was followed by a brilliant reception, which was attended by the members of the suites of all the foreign potentates now in London.

The Chamberlains Entertained.

Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, and Mrs. Chamberlain (who was Miss Mary Endicott, of Massachusetts) received the colonial premiers and other distinguished visitors from Great Britain's colonies at their London residence last evening.

A full and strictly private rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies to be held in Westminster abbey took place there yesterday afternoon, in which everybody, with the exception of the royal personages and the participants in the musical and religious features of the functions, rehearsed their respective duties. The archbishop of Canterbury, the Rev. Frederick Temple, and the lord chancellor, the Earl of Halsbury, were among those who were drilled in their parts under the superintendency of the Duke of Norfolk, the earl marshal.

After it was over the musical service for the coronation was rehearsed in full in the church house adjoining the abbey.

Abyssinian Attracts Attention.

None of the special envoys who arrived here yesterday, though they included princes of the greatest European dynasties, aroused as much interest as did Ras Makonnen, the Abyssinian general and special representative of King Menelik. In picturesque and barbarian splendor the Ethiopian commander and his suite paled even the brilliancy of the Oriental princes whom London has become accustomed to during the past week. Makonnen, who has black curly hair and a beard, wore a cloak of white silk, pantaloons, a shoulder cape of heavy white satin, bordered with gold, and a broad brimmed felt hat. Three native chiefs who accompanied him were scarcely less gorgeous in their apparel, while the African priest, carrying a heavy silver crozier, was the general's constant companion. Ras Makonnen's native followers carried guns and spears.

Prince Henry Arrived.

Among the other arrivals yesterday were Prince Henry of Prussia, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria, the prince of the Asturias, Crown Prince Gustaf of Sweden and Norway, Admiral Gervais, head of the French mission, and Mgr. Merry Del Val, the papal envoy.

The scenes in the streets yesterday were largely a repetition of those of Sunday. During most of the day they were even more crowded, many of the omnibus lines deserting the main thoroughfares and congested districts and running through back streets.

The decorations were nearing completion yesterday, and the weather, after weeks of cold and rain, became stilling hot.

To Sing Wherever They Arc.

Among the national observances on coronation day which have received the approval of the king is the suggestion, evidently traceable to the simultaneous stoppage of all trains, etc., in the United States for five minutes at 2 p. m. on the day of the late President McKinley's funeral, that at 5 o'clock on Thursday evening every British subject in the United Kingdom and the colonies, whether in the street, at home, in a theater, in church or elsewhere, shall uncover and join in singing "God Save the King." The promoters hope that wherever Britons are assembled in America they will join in singing the national anthem.

For Less Than $800 Work Has Been Done That Formerly Cost Twice as Much.

A correspondent writing from Han-over township on the new road law says:

"Our roads are supposed to be in politics; they are talked of and scrutinized as never before. Men's capacities as trustee, roadmaster or teamsters are now estimated by the condition of our highways.

"Our trustees failed to find outside of their own number enough such help as they deemed efficient to work the roads, and as a consequence they have done a full share themselves, receiving liberal pay. Such a condition will be criticized, no matter how unavoidable it may be.

"The writer has had the privilege of reviewing a considerable portion of the work together with the expenditures for nearly all that is required at this time, to make the highways in proper shape.

"Last week the trustees had expended $757, and they estimated unfinished work would require not over $50 more. It appears that less than $800 has served the township just as well as heretofore nearly double the amount applied miscellaneous by the supervisors. Some extra work has been done in the way of moving stone that have been allowed to accumulate on banks at roadsides, where they were constantly liable to get on the road.

"In several instances byways that never had been worked with a big scraper were neatly rounded up with good ditches on either side; this is the main point of superiority the new system has in the character of the work done.

"If we had some way of reaching the two-day men and still hold to a competent roadmaster who employed teams and men on a business basis, a few years would greatly improve our highways.

"There has been more public funds wasted by misdirected energies through ignorance of supervisors and by shirking prompted by the notion that no one need do his best on public work, than any other way in our farm districts.

TAFT REPORTS TO ROOT

Almost Daily—Latter Refuses to Discuss Matter, at Present.

Washington, June 24.—Secretary Root declines to discuss the details of Governor Taft's negotiations at Rome until they are complete. They are proceeding steadily and in the usual course, each side seeking to make the best possible bargain, with the result that there have been several exchanges since the original proposition of Governor Taft touching the friars' lands. They are reported by the governor to Secretary Root by cable almost daily, with full explanatory comments by himself and suggestions to govern the framing of counterproposals.

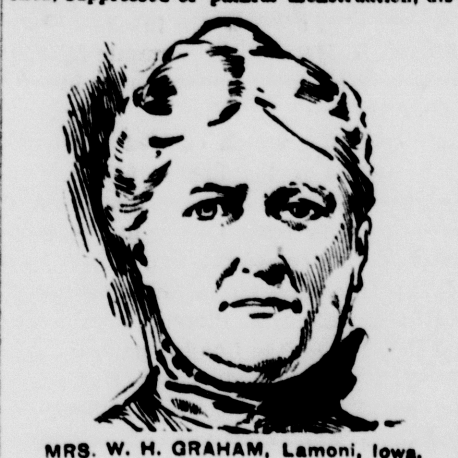

The last report from him came to Washington Sunday night in the shape of a copy of the proposal of the committee of cardinals, and the answer to this was dispatched yesterday afternoon. It is said at the war department that while there naturally have been some wide differences between the negotiators, there has been no such thing as an ultimatum or serious hitch, and there is no reason to doubt that a satisfactory agreement will be reached.

...located along the River Rhine, have established a world-wide reputation for their wonderful cures of Wasting Diseases, and for Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and for Constipation. A scientist writing in Johnson's Cyclopaedia on the Grape Cures of Europe says: "Admirable results are attained especially when the 'Grape Cure' has followed suitable treatment of the bowels, but the usefulness of the grape diet is beyond question the main factor in the cures." On account of the great expense of traveling many cannot go abroad to avail themselves of this treatment, but with Mull's Grape Tonic, at a nominal cost, A large bottle for 50 cents you have a "Traubenkurs" at your door. STIR IN MINING CIRCLES

Yields 72 Ounces to the Ton—Good News to Holders of Ceramic City Mine Stock.

Special to The News, Denver, Col.

Ouray, Colo., June 12.—There is considerable stir in mining circles here over the showing being made in the west side gold belt, immediately adjoining Ouray. Gold has been discovered in this section in quantities, that may prove with further development the equal of anything in the San Juan. Mr. W. A. Hart, of the Ceramic Mining company has been successful in his exploration work, to the extent of finding the lost vein which carried the high gold values in the Stenographer, during the hey-day of its activity. Assays of ore taken from this vein run seventy-two ounces to the ton.

The Stenographer originally belonged to Alexander & Pierson, who bonded the property to London parties. The London company operated the mine for some time, but the course pursued led them away from the vein carrying the rich values, being misled into following a large cross vein which runs through the property in a northerly direction. Becoming discouraged in their efforts to strike something rich the company abandoned the property and allowed their claim thereon to lapse.

A short time ago, Mr. Hart, who is a man of wide experience in the mining industry, examined the property, and to him the mistake made by the London company became at once apparent. He succeeded in interesting a number of capitalists in the mine and organized a company. The company acquired title to the property and also to a number of other claims, by purchase and location, immediately adjacent to the Stenographer, and active work will soon be in progress on the group. Men are at work repairing the old trail and building new ones, preparing to forward supplies and putting on a large force. New boarding and ore houses are being built and work on the erection of a twenty stamp mill will soon be begun.

Work is progressing steadily on the Box canon, and the tunnel is being driven toward the contact vein that was opened up in the Merchants properties on the west. It is expected that the vein will be cut within another fifty feet. There is little doubt that good bodies of ore will be found in the contact. A tunnel lower down on the mountain extended into this vein originally and from this tunnel shipping ore was taken out at a much greater distance from the contact than fifty feet, but the mouth of the tunnel was too near the general level to furnish a sufficient dumping ground, hence the new tunnel now being driven.

the most prominent men identified with the new company. The statement that the D. E. McNicol Pottery company is identified with the new concern is somewhat premature. A member of the firm when seen this morning gave out the following statement: "While we have been asked to give a price on our pottery in this city, we have refrained from doing so up to the present time. So far we have nothing to do with the company, but what will be done in the future is a matter that cannot be spoken of just now."

It was learned from other sources that up to the present time the Harker company is not identified with the new concern. While overtures are said to have been made by the Laughlin combination for the Harkers to enter the deal, nothing has been done so far. The intimation is that the Harker company was approached in the same manner that the McNicol Co. was, asked for a price on its plant, and nothing more.

No statement could be secured from representatives of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company today, as Col. John N. Taylor and Joseph G. Lee were in Pittsburgh attending to some other important matters. They are expected to return to the city this evening.

Neither could a statement concerning the reported combination be secured from those connected with the Laughlin company, for when a reporter talked to Secretary W. E. Wells he had nothing to say. Others connected with this company were at Pittsburgh during the day.

This is the second time an attempt has been made to form a combination by L. I. Aarons, president of the Laughlin company. Several years ago Mr. Aarons attempted to form a combine among the local potteries by offering owners of such plants one-third in stock, one-third in bonds and the other third in cash. A number of manufacturers were approached on the subject at the time, but nothing ever came of the deal. The project was dropped rather suddenly, and while it met with the favor of some, opposition was met on other sides.

Now that the formation of such a deal is assured, nothing more will be heard of the proposition presented by Messrs. Trainer and Irwin of Chicago. These gentlemen sent the same proposition to each and every manufacturer in the city, but little if any faith was pinned to the details of the form of arrangement.

From an indirect source it was learned this morning that the plan of formation of this combination is almost the same as that upon which the East Liverpool Potteries company was formed. This plan was originated by a well known resident of this city, who is indirectly identified with the pottery industry. It was nothing more or less than the forming of a working arrangement among potteries of the same class, all through the city. When this is done a working arrangement can be secured with other combinations. It may be a hard matter to deal with probably 50 manufacturers, but when only a few persons are to be interviewed, the matter of forming a combination is much easier. Such is the argument put up by a well known manufacturer. Place all potteries on an equal footing, and the matter of forming a pottery combine will be easier work.

Suit on a Note.

Lisbon, June 24.—(Special)—John J. Ward, of Unity township, has entered suit against James S. McCoy for $251.66, which he claims is due on a $400 note. The note is secured by a mortgage on 20 1-2 acres of land in Middleton township.
